No Free Ports For Canada Board Reports

Special Committee Recommends Against Move Victoria and Vancouver Not Pressing

(Special to The Daily Colonist)

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—A five-man interdepartmental committee of the Federal Government, headed by J. E. St. Laurent, vice-chairman of the National Harbor Board, has completed a report which recommends against the introduction into Canada of a free port system.

The report, which is unanimous, is now being given its finishing touches and will be placed in the hands of Transport Minister Lionel Chevrier the latter part of next week. The Transport Minister will present the findings to Cabinet Council, following which there will be a public release before Parliament reconvenes on January 30.

But, from the highest authoritative sources it is positively learned that the five-man inter-departmental inquiry, which has been going on for more than a year, will make all-embracing conclusions.

In other words, the committee's unanimous report finds that a free port or free trade zoning system for goods arriving in bond for possible transhipment to still another country is not a feasible proposition for Canada.

Until the Cabinet has had time to digest the committee's findings, which are reported to run into only 4,000 words, the text of this report is being withheld.

There is a reason why there may be delayed action by the Government in publicizing the report. According to Ottawa Federal Government quarters, Victoria and Vancouver have not recently been as aggressive as they were a few years ago in urging free port.

But where the Government faces embarrassment, notably and admittedly, is in Quebec City, Saint John and Halifax. Public representatives of these three port cities came to Ottawa several months ago in a combined drive for permissive free port legislation to be passed by the Federal Parliament.

The answer of the Federal Cabinet was that it would expedite the committee's report so that if it were favorable to a free port system the necessary permissive legislation could be passed at the new parliamentary session.

Plan Fight To Finish Say French

Necessary to Have Military Decision

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Jan. 4 (Reuters).—The French liner Champollion arrived here today with 1,000 French troops bound for Indo-China.

PARIS, Jan. 4 (AP).—Full-scale war in Indo-China was foreseen today when Colonial Minister Marius Moutet sent word that France would have to fight it out there.

"It is necessary to have a military decision," Moutet told the semi-official French press agency. The interview at Saigon followed his return from an eye-witness view of fighting in the northern city of Hanoi, where he twice was fired upon by snipers, said by the French to be Viet-Namese.

Saying he was convinced the Viet-Namese started the fighting at Hanoi, December 19, with premeditation as part of a plot against French control of any sort, Moutet declared:

"Those responsible for this tragedy have systematically destroyed many hopes and compromised the efforts in which we have put all our goodwill. Before any negotiations today it is necessary to have a military decision. I am sorry, but one cannot commit such follies as the Viet-Namese have done."

News of Moutet's plans to cut short his fact-finding trip to France's Oriental empire, reached Paris simultaneously with the arrival on official visits of the French resident-generals of Tunis and Morocco. Another high French official was flying to Paris from Dakar in French West Africa.

Polar Silences Hold Nine Men

ABOARD THE U.S.S. MOUNT OLYMPUS IN THE ICE PACK, Jan. 3 (AP).—A heavy snowstorm and fog still prevented this morning the slightest search move for nine men lost since Monday in the frigid silences of the South Polar region. There was no signal out of the wastes from the lost plane and the silence caused hopes to dwindle that the plane might be floating in the sea.

Argentina Joins Antarctic Race

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 4 (AP).—Argentina joined the contest for the Antarctic today, sending out an expedition to revalidate its claims dating back 43 years and kept active through maintenance of a weather outpost on the frozen sub-continent.

Highway Crash Kills Saanich Resident

—Colonist Photo

ABOVE is pictured the badly damaged coupe in which John Napier, 43-year-old Saanich farmer, crashed to his death on the icy surface of East Saanich Road shortly before noon yesterday. According to Sgt. Eric Elwell, of the Saanich police, Mr. Napier was proceeding south on East Saanich Road, just north of Sayward Road, when his car skidded, plunged over a six-foot embankment and crashed into a large tree. It was the first fatal traffic accident in the Greater Victoria area this year.

Plane Crash Kills Eleven

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 4 (AP).—A seaplane of the Panair Airways Line crashed into the Solimoes extension of the Amazon River in Northern Brazil today, killing 11 passengers and crew members.

Youngsters Enjoy Winter Sports During School Holidays

—Colonist Photo.

Reopening of schools tomorrow morning will put a quick end to such happy scenes as the one above, in which a group of school-age boys and girls take full advantage of the last few days of the Christmas holidays to try out new skates and hockey sticks on a small pond. This and similar ice surfaces on the outskirts of the city have been crowded with youthful skaters for the past few days. The recent cold snap, coming in the middle of the Christmas school holidays, afforded an opportunity for Victoria and district school children to enjoy this Winter sport.

Chinese Order Nationals Cease Insults

NANKING, Jan 4 (CP).—The Chinese Government ordered a halt today to any demonstrations affecting Chinese-American relations and moved to squelch anyone insulting an American in China.

Acting after anti-American student demonstrations this week in Nanking, Peiping, Tientsin and Shanghai, the executive Yuan (Cabinet) told the Ministry of Education and provincial and municipal Governments to prevent any more such activities.

Even before the order went out, several hundred Nanking universities' students had demanded an end to the demonstrations and praised the United States as "presently the only good friend of China." The demonstrations already have subsided.

An executive Yuan announcement said that American authorities in Peiping were holding for possible court martial action a United States marine charged with attacking a Chinese girl—the incident which ostensibly set off the turbulent parades. The marine denied the charge.

Car in Gear Stabs Driver

BRISTOL, England, Jan. 4 (AP).—George H. Mason, 55, was stabbed fatally today by an automobile. The machine, which he cranked not knowing it to be in gear, pushed him against the garage wall, driving the buckle of a surgical belt into his chest.

Giving Up Post On Atom Board

WASHINGTON, Jan 4 (AP).—Elder Statesman Bernard M. Baruch, completing his last great public job, resigned tonight as United States member of the United Nations Atomic Commission. In a letter to President Truman he said there is no reason why the United States should not continue to make atomic bombs.

Baruch expressed his view on continued manufacture of the bomb, which is contrary to Russia's urgings to outlaw the weapon promptly, in his letter of resignation to the President.

Mr. Truman, accepting the resignation, wrote that at first he was reluctant to let Baruch go but he finally agreed that from here on, American atomic representation at the United Nations should be centered in Warren P. Austin, member of the Security Council, that was what Baruch proposed.

In resigning, Baruch acted promptly after the United Nations Atomic Commission had adopted, under his constant pressure, the main essentials of the American plan as its own. The commission finished its work a few days ago, and the whole vast issue of atomic control and disarmament moved actively into the Security Council.

Austin, former Republican senator from Vermont, has been designated by Mr Truman to be American member of the Council.

There was no suggestion of any difference of opinion on any point of atomic policy among Baruch, the President, Secretary of State Byrnes or other high Government officials here. All had backed Baruch's negotiations to the hilt.

Wintry Gales Hit Northward

SEATTLE, Jan. 4 (AP).—A lashing Winter gale, whose gusts exceeded 60 miles an hour, was blowing northward from Nome, Alaska, tonight after having swept in from the tip of the Aleutian chain 36 hours ago in the direction of the Bering Strait.

The weather bureau at Seattle said its last report from Nome at 8 30 p.m. (P.S.T.) indicated the peak of the storm had passed, but icy winds up to 50 miles an hour were still howling in from the sea. Temperatures had dropped to 10 degrees above zero.

No reports of damage to military installations on the Aleutian Islands or at Nome have been received here.

Weather bureau officials here said the gale hit Amchitka at the end of the Aleutian chain early yesterday morning, swept inland in a northerly direction and then moved up the Western Alaska coast.

Police in Raids On Race Offices

MONTREAL, Jan. 4 (CP).—The Montreal Evening Standard reported tonight that police have broken the nerve centre of illegal racing information here.

It said that members of the morality squad in two swift raids during the afternoon invaded the offices of a Montreal wire service and of a tipster's sheet.

They found a telegraph operator receiving results from an American race track, and when they tore down a false partition they found 18 live telephones allegedly used to give racing information to bookmakers.

Burglars Believe In Perseverance

DETROIT, Jan 4 (NANA).—Fruit Merchant Joseph Rapaport was a happy man three weeks ago. Prowlers broke into his home here, ransacked the house, left without taking a thing. They came back. Missing: $3,000 in cash, a diamond ring, a watch set with diamonds, 12 bottles of whisky.

Seriously Ill

HENRI PHILLIPPE PETAIN

PARIS, Jan. 4 (AP).—Marshal Henri Phillippe Petain was reported seriously ill today at his isolated exile in a barren cell on the Atlantic Isle D'Yeu. The present illness was variously described as a "very bad cold" and as an infected lung.

Survey Plane In Aleutians

SEATTLE, Jan 4 (AP).—Northwest Air Lines officials announced here tonight their Orient route survey plane landed at Shemya, near the end of the Aleutian chain at 8 30 p.m. (P.S.T.) after a two-hour flight from Adak.

Hawaii in Path Of Big Storm Crossing Ocean

Gigantic Waves Batter Beaches to Cause Heavy Damage to Islands—No Casualties

HONOLULU, Jan. 4 (AP).—Gigantic waves racing before a distant midocean storm caused hundreds of thousands of dollars in damage to the Hawaiian Islands today and their peak was still to come.

No casualties had yet been reported through hampered communications, but lowland residents fled, recalling the disastrous seismic sea wave which killed 173 persons and injured 201 in the islands last April 1.

Today's waves wreaking havoc on beach homes, highways, breakwaters and communications lines was entirely storm-borne.

Higher-than-normal waves have hammered the windward shores for two days. They reached a destructive high shortly after last midnight, and the coast guard predicted that the next danger period would come at high tide Sunday morning, about 2 30 a.m. (5 a.m. P.S.T.).

Greatest damage was reported from Hilo, on the island of Hawaii, and from the islands of Maui and Lanai, between Hawaii and Oahu.

The western station of General Lyman Airfield on Hawaii said a storm some 900 miles north of Hawaii was responsible and that it was moving directly towards that largest of the islands at a speed of six to nine miles an hour.

Observers said waves drove 40 feet high over the Hilo breakwater, not yet completely repaired from the heavy damage it experienced April 1.

Water reached 1,000 yards inland, flooded the first floor of the Puumaile Hospital, and wrecked outlying homes of hospital personnel. Hilo police and soldiers managed to reach the hospital at noon and started removing 200 patients who had spent a miserable night and morning crowded on an upper floor without water or cooking.

Check Move For Revolt In Hungary

Scores Arrested By Government

BUDAPEST, Jan. 4 (AP).—Communist Minister of the Interior Laszlo Rajk said today 55 persons had been seized in connection with a plot to overthrow the Government and re-establish the regime of Admiral Nicholas Horthy by an armed revolt to be touched off the moment Russian troops leave the country.

Anti-Communists immediately charged that the plot was a Communist "frame-up" designed to dispense with the opposition and entrench the present political order for the time when the Russian occupation troops depart.

Rajk said the plot was engineered by a "committee of seven," six of whom were under arrest. The committee had at its disposal "several" disassembled airplanes and had established an "underground chief command" for the armed uprising, he added.

A prominent Cabinet Minister yesterday said 43 persons had been arrested on charges of plotting to establish "a democratic military dictatorship."

Rajk asserted that "the date set for the revolt was the day set for the signing of the peace treaty or the moment of the departure of the Red Army."

Ontario, Quebec Police Hunting Car Wreckers

HAMILTON, Jan. 5 (CP).—Police forces in Ontario and Quebec were on the alert today for tips that would lead them to hideouts used by an alleged black market ring for stripping automobiles stolen in Ontario and sold, often as a collection of parts, in Quebec.

Police here said recently that they believed up to 170 cars had been stolen in this district and disposed of in Montreal. Demand for used parts had been so great that thieves found stripping stolen vehicles and selling parts more profitable and less risky than trying to get rid of a whole car.

The police drive to break up the ring took on new impetus with the discovery Friday at West Flamboro, roughly half way between here and London, Ont., of what officers said they believed was one of the hide-aways.

A sweep on the farm turned up a stolen Hamilton car and seven licence plates removed from stolen vehicles. Police arrested one man on the farm and later took two other men into custody here.

The men appeared in court yesterday and were remanded to January 14. Two were charged with receiving stolen goods and the third with vagrancy.

In addition to the three arrests here by local police, so far there have been two arrests in Toronto in connection with the car ring case, one in Montreal and one arrest in Hamilton by Montreal police.

Admits Slaying Of Little Girl

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Jan. 4 (CP).—Fearful of mob violence, a special guard was mustered today at city police station which held jittery Sidney George Chambers, confessed slayer of nine-year-old Marion Rusnak.

Police announced Saturday that the 34-year-old stationary engineer admitted abducting the little girl two days before Christmas as she walked toward home with a toy drum for her brother, then strangling her and throwing her body into a furnace.

Most extensive search and manhunt in the history of this Niagara Peninsula city which was scheduled to include the draining of the old Welland Canal today ended when police announced Saturday that Chambers had been remanded to January 10 in connection with the case.

Arrest of the slender nervous canning plant boiler fireman came five days ago when he attempted to commit suicide by slashing his wrists and was found lying unconscious in his gas-filled plant dormitory. He made a second attempt on his own life last night when he tried to hang himself from a bar in his cell.

Should Future Queen Wed Philip Is Question

LONDON, Jan. 4 (AP).—The tabloid newspaper Sunday Pictorial asked its millions of readers tonight to answer the big question currently confronting the United Kingdom. Should the Princess Elizabeth marry Prince Philip of Greece?

Devoting the front page of its Sunday edition to the launching of a public poll, which was headlined "should our future Queen wed Philip?" the newspaper asked its readers to consider the question with "sympathy and wisdom" and send their views to its "royal marriage" department.

"Above all," The Pictorial declared, "the loyal people over whom the Princess will one day rule as Queen must also be afforded the opportunity of expressing their views—not after the event, as occurred over another royal crisis in 1936, but before it."

The other "crisis" referred to was the abdication of the now Duke of Windsor to marry Wallis Warfield Simpson.

Although Buckingham Palace has denied repeatedly that the 25-year-old Prince and Princess were betrothed, The Pictorial said "the conviction is strongly held in informed circles that an announcement is contemplated sooner or later of the engagement."

The Royal romance has been a hot issue because of some expressed criticism of any wedding between the Princess and Greek Royalty which is in ill repute with the vocal leftist section of British politics.

"You Just Know" When It's Love

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—Fifteen-year-old Isabel Mary Butwell arrived from England by plane today and said she had the written consent of her mother to marry Paul Sinclair, 22, of Youngstown, Ohio, an ex-G.I. she met at a dance in April, 1944. Asked how she knew she was in love when only 13, the girl replied "Oh, you just know."

Legion President To See Braefoot

Major-General C. B. Price, president of the Canadian Legion, will make a tour of the Braefoot Estate and Tillicum army huts, Robert Knight, chairman of the zone council of the Canadian Legion, announced last night.

The Legion president will be accompanied by Mr. Knight, who was instrumental in obtaining an investigation into conditions at Braefoot, and J. Wittcomb, naval representative of the Canadian Legion.

Mr Knight said there was a possibility General Price may bring with him some information as to when the Braefoot investigation will commence.

Charge Provinces Given "Brush Off" By Railways in Rates Application

OTTAWA, Jan. 5 (CP).—A charge that the Canadian railways are "giving the brush-off" to the Provinces in the former's freight rate increase application was voiced by Col. J. L. Ralston, counsel for the Maritimes, before the Board of Transport Commissioners Saturday.

The former Federal Cabinet minister was joined by spokesmen for the Prairie Provinces and British Columbia in criticizing the attitude of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways toward a request from the Provinces for more particulars on their application for a general 30 per cent rate boost in advance of hearings due to start February 11.

At the same time, railway representatives disclaimed any intention of withholding evidence relevant to the hearing. They said some of the requested data was unavailable, some was on the public record and more would be brought out by witnesses at the hearing.

After two days of argument on the issue of advance information, the board reserved decision until an indefinite date. Chief Commissioner J. A. Cross said the decision would be handed down "as speedily as possible."

During Saturday's hearing, the C.N.R. rejected the claim of some of the Provinces—chiefly the Maritimes and British Columbia—that the present inquiry should develop into a general investigation of Canada's whole rate structure.

A. K. Dysart, assistant general solicitor for the Government line, joined the C.P.R. in declaring that the present was not the time for a general inquiry, though the railway would not object to regional claims being put forward after disposition of this case.

He described the current case as a "purely financial" one.

Col. Ralston said the railways had advanced "quite insufficient grounds" for not providing advance particulars.

"Their attitude seems simply an attempt to stampede us into an inquiry without sufficient preparation . . . They are just giving us the brush-off," he declared.

Col. Ralston struck out at the railways' claims of financial extremity as a ground for hastening the inquiry.

Most of the C.P.R.'s additional revenue calculated under 30 per cent rate, increases in 1947—$37,000,000 in all—was to go for dividends and income tax, he said.

"That's the financial extremity of the C.P.R.," he added.

"As for the C.N.R. no one can talk of financial extremity now, having regard to the condition it was in for years and years."

What the Provinces wanted to know particularly, he said, was whether freight was to be the "load horse" carrying the bulk of the railways' burden, whether there should be increases in other branches, or whether additional revenue should be a public charge.

England's Town Planning Bill Aims to Preserve Countryside

LONDON, Jan. 4 (CP).—Publication is expected within a few days of a town and country planning bill which would give the Government control over the use of land and would make new arrangements for compensation of owners affected by planning projects.

First reading of the bill was given December 20 in the Commons and both Government supporters and the Opposition are waiting anxiously [illegible] bulky measure designed to smooth out the wrinkles on the face of Old England.

Town planning authorities told The Canadian Press that endless frustration has been encountered in national planning in the past and that they are hopeful the new bill will contain comprehensive provisions to make their work more useful.

"The great problem in the way of town planning on a big scale has been compensation to private owners," one authority said. "Here is an example: Everyone agrees London should have a green belt of fields and trees between industrialized areas and the suburbs or wherever it shall be desirable. Plans for such a belt have been made in the past and all agreed they were just what was needed.

"In the past, only local authorities could make town planning effective by securing that land for the green belt purposes and small councils simply could not afford the price a landlord might expect to re- [illegible] National Government will step in and make such safeguards possible."

Planning will be applied throughout England and Wales and not only to large cities. The Government's over-all purpose is to preserve the beauty of the countryside and to control the redevelopment of dreary towns. Highways likely will be straightened to facilitate transport and the location of airfields and railways will be taken into account.

It will be made clear that the state has the final say on the disposition of land in the national interest and private individuals will not be able to block projects considered desirable by the Government and its advisers.

A Scottish planning organization under the Secretary of State for Scotland will work independently to integrate the scheme for planning in the northern kingdom

Can't Find Room For Small Baboon

JOHANNESBURG, Jan. 4 (CP).—A half-grown baboon took possession of a motor car near here and gave motorists a rude shock.

The animal leaped through the open window of the car being driven along a mountain road by J. F. Duffel. The car swerved into the mountain side and came to a halt.

The baboon, bleeding from a cut above the eye, showed its teeth and refused to leave the car. The driver of another car engaged the animal's attention, and Mr. Duffel grabbed the baboon's tail and flung it out on the road. Immediately it sped for the other car, but a woman passenger banged the door shut.

Meantime Duffel had just started to drive away when the baboon leaped onto the hood, but fell off as the car gathered speed.

Another motorist later picked up the baboon and took it to a hotel where it jumped on a table and frightened away the diners.

It is thought the baboon is a tame animal desperately searching for its master.

Arrives Today

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi arrives tomorrow in quest of American financial and economic assistance which some officials believe may decide his country's immediate political future.

Accompanied by four key aides, De Gasperi is scheduled to arrive by plane about noon.

De Gasperi's main aim, although not openly acknowledged, will be to prod the American Government into a decision on a $100,000,000 American loan which the Export-Import Bank has been considering for nearly a year.

Government officials familiar with Italian problems said the 65-year-old Prime Minister's success in getting American aid can well determine whether the middle-of-the-road Christian Democratic Party he heads stays in office.

Strike Threat Faces Eire As Labor Party Grumbles

DUBLIN, Jan. 5 (Reuters).—Eire, for many years a political battleground and the scene of labor agitation, entered 1947 with the threat of strikes in almost every major industry and a growing dissatisfaction in the Labor party with the policy of the present Government.

A presentiment of what may be expected was shown by the recent sugar strike which cost the country an estimated $3,000,000. The strike was an attempt to bring the wage level in the industry abreast of the standard of living which, according to a labor spokesman, rose by about 70 per cent during the war. For the same reason, strikes may be expected in other industries unless the Government takes a hand.

Labor is demanding wage increases of 50 to 70 per cent above 1939 rates. The Government has set up a labor court to adjudicate in disputes and to avoid unofficial strikes, but observers say this has not been wholly successful.

Meanwhile, labor itself has been unable to agree upon any concerted action, and since 1943 has presented no serious challenge to the present Government.

The Fianna Fail Party Government headed by Prime Minister Eamon De Valera has instituted progressive legislation which includes a 48-hour week, holidays with pay for workers, land division, and industrialisation schemes whereby state capital is used to develop industries that have been neglected by private enterprise or where the expenditure required would be too heavy for private capital to carry.

The program thus carried out has resulted in the centralisation and almost state control of transport, electricity, air transport, fuel development and the sugar industry.

Main criticism from Opposition leaders is that public money is being used to develop these industries but that profit goes to private concerns. Another criticism by labor spokesmen is that the cost of living went up 70 per cent in Ireland since 1939 as compared with only 30 per cent in Britain.

Some social measures also are unsatisfactory to part of the population; for instance, old age pensions in Eire are only 10 shillings ($2) per week and unemployment pay is low—15 shillings ($3) per week for a single man.

One problem facing the Government is unemployment which is always high—seldom below 70,000 out of a working population estimated at 800,000.

Political observers maintain that the present Government is primarily Conservative despite the progressive social measures it has instituted.

Other parties in the Dail are the Fine Gael (formerly the Government and now the Opposition party) and the Clann Na Talhan (Farmers' party).

The Fine Gael party, observers believe, has little chance of returning as a government in the foreseeable future. The Clann Na Talhan party recently suffered a blow when one of its leading members resigned after protesting the action of two fellow members who wished a more speedy land division.

Accused by French

Charged by the French with having planned the revolt that has been raging in North Indo-China, President Ho Chi Minh (above), head of the Viet Nam Republic, is shown here as he played host to newspapermen after the creation of the Government. Ho, in turn, says the French colonial policy is responsible for his country's trouble.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 4 (AP).—Frank Schiere's New Year greeting came belatedly and violently.

An automobile knocked him down as he crossed a street. The unidentified driver shouted:

"Happy New Year, kid," and sped away.

Schiere suffered a leg injury.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 4 (AP).—Someone has swiped the "Welcome to Cleveland" plaque from Public Square, and by golly, something's going to be done about it.

Not only that, it had cost $46.04 (not including installation), measured 18 by 42 inches, was made of micarta and fastened to the concrete with six bolts.

Only six holes in the concrete are there now.

MOSCOW, Jan. 4 (AP).—A 71-year-old Moscow street beggar was discovered today to have amassed a personal fortune of 260,000 rubles.

(The official ruble rate is 5.3 to the dollar; the diplomatic rate is 12 to the dollar).

Press reports said Vasily Yefremovich Vasiliev had aroused suspicion by begging in the capital's Yelokhov Square. Upon investigation it was discovered that from 1930 until 1940 Vasiliev was a collective farmer and had a home fruit garden in a village near Vologda but "was not satisfied with this," and came to Moscow to beg in 1940.

Cultivation of abaca, source of hemp, was not started in the western hemisphere until 1925.

Hitch-Hiker Moves Fast

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP).—With $4 in his pocket, Walter R. Stopper, 23, of Victoria, arrived here last night and claimed he had hitch-hiked 3,437 miles from Vancouver in eight days, nine hours and 53 minutes. He said his longest stop was an hour in Winnipeg.

"I figured I would get a job in Toronto," said Stopper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stopper, of Victoria. "I fix typewriters. I'm supposed to start work next Wednesday. [illegible] didn't ride for nothing. When I got a ride I bought the driver a meal or some coffee and cigarettes."

When he arrived in Toronto, he wore a parka and a heavy sweater, and said he had $4 left in his pockets.

Friendship Pays French Soldier

WOOLSTOCK, Ia., Jan. 4 (AP).—A French soldier's friendship and care for a dying Iowa boy on the West Indies Island of Martinique has brought the Frenchman a new home in a new land.

Three years ago this week Louis Hanus, 29, youngest son of Mrs. Celine Hanus, 68, of Woolstock, died of liver disease at Fort de France, Martinique, where Jean Guyader, French Colonial soldier, was stationed.

Guyader and Hanus had become friends when the Iowa youth, who had joined the French Army in 1940, had made his way to Martinique after escaping from a German prison camp.

During Hanus' illness, Guyader wrote regularly to the Iowan's mother. The Frenchman's kindness so deeply touched the Hanus family that for two years they had sought to get Guyader to America.

Ernest Hanus, brother of Louis, sent Guyader $300 for his passage but many obstacles arose. Guyader was transferred to Morocco; then he was moved to France where his home was at Garantes, Brittany.

New Year's Day Guyader appeared unannounced at the Hanus home. He had unexpectedly been permitted to sail on a boat which left France December 18 and reached Woolstock on his own.

"I feel almost as if I had gained a new son," Mrs. Hanus said today.

Syria Says Collective Security Must Precede Arms Reduction

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—Syria, one of the new members of the United Nations Security Council, insisted today that a world-wide system of collective security must precede the immediate arms reduction program demanded by Russia.

Taking note of a Soviet proposal that the council implement the United Nations Assembly's arms-slashing resolution within 90 days, Syrian Delegate Faris El Khoury [illegible] assured of security.

"This will have to come about by treaties and agreements between the individual countries and the United Nations," he said in an interview. "We shall need information on how many troops the members have and work out a system for supplying forces to the United Nations to assure peace and security.

"It also would be inadvisable to start cutting down on arms until the peace treaties are signed. And the control of atomic energy must be given prior consideration."

El Khoury, President of the Syrian Parliament and former Prime Minister, will take his council seat for the first time at a meeting Tuesday, along with delegates from Belgium and Colombia. Mexico, The [illegible] the 11-nation body.

At next week's session, the council will tackle Russia's plan to speed arms cutting, consider a counter United States proposal to give priority to atomic control, and take up the long-debated question of United Nations administration of Trieste.

The United Nations released a letter from Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, signed as chairman of the Council of Foreign Ministers, to the Security Council asking its approval of the Trieste agreement by January 15. The letter said speed was essential in that the signing of the Italian peace treaty was "to occur at the beginning of February."

Byrnes' letter said the treaty "establishes a free territory of Trieste whose independence and integrity would be ensured by the Security Council."

Under provisions of the treaty, the Security Council will appoint a governor over the territory.

Jury Acquits Army Veteran

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4 (AP).—Howard C. Brock, 28-year-old former army sergeant, was acquitted tonight of a charge of murder in the commando-knife slaying of his wife, May.

A jury of 10 women and two men deliberated 63 minutes before reaching the verdict.

Brock testified he came back from army service last Easter to find his wife gone with nearly $7,000 of his savings and their home rented to strangers.

Other witnesses told the court they saw him stab his wife 11 times last September 23 on a Philadelphia street.

Singing Contest for Canaries Will Be First Held on Island

Something new in contests has been scheduled in Victoria for the period from January 15 to 18. During this time the Victoria Roller Canary Club will hold its first annual canary song contest in the O.E.S. Hall, 1602 Redfern Street. The show will be the first of its kind ever held on Vancouver Island, and much interest is being taken in the contest by canary owners of this city, other points in Canada, and even the United States.

The show will be open to the public on January 18 at 8 p.m. Peter Greenall, well known authority on canaries and other birds, will act as judge. In charge of arrangements for the affair are J. A. Corlett, show manager; and K. A. Elliott, show secretary. J. Smalley and V. Smith comprise the prize committee. Prizes will be awarded by Alderman D. D. McTavish.

All birds competing in the novel contest will be judged in accordance with the British standard of song and rules. Martin Hoffmeister, president of the organization, has announced special forms have been made available to allow United States exhibitors to have their birds readmitted to the United States free of duty.

FEWER JOBS

At present there are 222 vacancies for women and 211 for men, compared with 224 vacancies listed for women and 585 for men last month.

Employment opportunities for women are greater than those for men, Selective Service announced yesterday.

Usual male requirements are 600, officials said.

BUILDING PERMITS

Permits totaling $40,060 in value were issued last week by the city building department. The city led the other three municipalities by a slight margin.

The Saanich total of $35,800 was the second highest. Esquimalt was third with $2,075. Oak Bay issued a single permit for alterations estimated to cost $300.

A total of 17 permits were issued in the city last week, five of these for dwellings.

In Esquimalt a new workshop and office building accounted for $2,000 of the total construction authorized.

MANY SKATING

Victorians continued over the week-end to dig into their trunks and get out their ice skates to take advantage of small stretches of ice throughout the district.

According to reports there is skating at Colwood, Third Trestle, Spectacle Lake, Gorge and Little Thetis Lake. Safety of the ponds is not guaranteed.

W. H. Warren, parks' superintendent, said yesterday that the ice in Beacon Hill Park was definitely not safe for skating.

TO OCCUPY SUITES

Although reconversion of Moresby House in Esquimalt is not complete, four veterans' families are moving in this week-end, according to the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council.

The building is being renovated to accommodate 18 families. "There are still hundreds of veterans seeking housing accommodation for their families," A. Palmer, executive secretary of the council, said yesterday.

A number of the huts at the Colwood army camp have been granted to the City Council and citizens' group to reconvert for housing of veterans.

ARTS COURSES POPULAR

Arts and science courses appear to be the favorites of undergraduate veterans in Canadian universities, according to a report on enrollment.

For these courses, 15,766 veterans are enrolled—more than twice as many as in the engineering and applied science courses. Taking the latter courses are 7,514 veterans.

In commerce courses there are 2,113, and 1,173 are seeking their agricultural degrees. In law there are 1,097.

Strength of Spirits Criticized by I.W.A.

ASSERTING that the liquor consumers in the province were being sold diluted liquor by the British Columbia Liquor Commission, District Council No. 1, International Woodworkers of America, yesterday went on record as favoring "sale of spirits of a strength comparable to pre-war quality."

A resolution, passed unanimously, maintained such weak liquor was sold in Government liquor stores that "it constitutes an unprecedented increase in the price of liquor and a reduced quality of same."

Red Cross Opens Blood Donor Drive

TYPICAL of laboratory technicians with the Canadian Red Cross Society, this English girl, Patricia Tait, of Leeds, is hard at work examining blood cells during a test. Registration for peacetime blood donors for the Red Cross begins in Victoria next week, and donors will give their blood in February.

Drive to Supply Blood, Plasma For All Hospitals Opens Here

A plea to the citizens of Victoria between the ages of 18 and 65 to register for the Red Cross blood donor service when the drive opens here this week was made yesterday by Maj.-Gen. R. O. Alexander, campaign chairman.

MAJ.-GEN. R. O. ALEXANDER

"Blood should not be bought or sold as a commercial commodity, for it represents the free gift of one man to another in order that human life may be saved," he said.

Object of the campaign, said Gen. Alexander, was to "ultimately supply all blood and plasma for transfusion in hospitals all across Canada free of charge."

"This is the great peacetime project of the Red Cross," he continued. "It is being inaugurated in British Columbia and will be carried on in every province in the Dominion."

Object of the drive in Victoria, he explained, was 5,000 donors, and registration begins on Monday.

Donors wishing to register can either go to the special booths at McGill & Orme, Fort and Broad Streets, David Spencer's or at Red Cross headquarters, 602 Broughton Street.

A special telephone registration service is being conducted by a corps of Red Cross girls who will man the phones at headquarters all next week. Those wishing to register in this manner may phone B 3159.

While registration takes place this week, actual donations of blood will be made starting February 3 at the Bay Street Armories.

Said Mayor Percy E. George: "I heartily endorse the appeal of the Canadian Red Cross being launched Monday for volunteer blood donors in order to build up a blood bank. I believe this is a very worthwhile community service."

Retaining Bricks Results in Fine

Frederick Craig, Oldfield Road, was fined $100 in Saanich police court yesterday following his conviction on Thursday on a charge of retaining in his possession a quantity of stolen bricks, under the value of $25.

Evidence of good character and the fact it was Craig's first offence led the magistrate to the conclusion a fine would be sufficient in the case, he told accused.

The bricks were the property of Lyall Pollard and Laura A. Pearson, and had been stolen from the yard of the Victoria Retail Lumber Company earlier in the week.

Woodworkers Ask Government To Refuse Arctic Bases for U.S.

Claiming establishment of United States military bases in the Canadian Arctic, as requested by the United States Government, would be of "an offensive character against the Soviet Union," the tenth annual convention of the International Woodworkers of America yesterday called on the Dominion Government "to reject all such proposals."

In a resolution passed unanimously [illegible] also was urged to assert its influence at the meeting of the United Nations to reaffirm the principles of the Atlantic Charter.

"It is generally known," the resolution read, "that the establishment of such Arctic bases is to provide the military machinery for the use of atomic bombs."

Concluding the last session of the two-day convention here, the delegates yesterday passed 32 other resolutions, dealing with a wide variety of subjects.

Condemning "actions, speeches, pronunciations of those people who are seeking to undermine our friendly relations with the Soviet Union," the delegates called upon the Government "to pursue such policies as to help strengthen future relations with Russia."

CRITICIZE CUTTING CHRISTMAS TREES

Another resolution criticized present methods of cutting Christmas trees, and said that wasteful cutting and handling was gradually depleting future timber resources.

The delegates went on record as recommending that the Government allow no Christmas tree cutting on Crown timber land.

Support of the Sloan Commission on Forestry calling for Provincial regulations on cutting practices in the forest and other conservation methods also was voiced by the delegates.

The convention went on record to call upon the Provincial Legislature "to enact at the forthcoming session the forestry legislation as recommended by the commission."

"We also support the Forestry Department in its endeavor of replanting and reseeding all logged-over lands, and urge replanting of log slash within three years of cutting," the resolution read.

FREIGHT TARIFFS HELD UNFAIR

The convention claimed present freight tariffs on Canadian railroads were "discriminatory" against British Columbia and the Western Provinces, and deprived them of expanding industry and trade.

The delegates demanded that the Government establish by law equal freight rates.

Other resolutions demanded that all lumber camps be inspected by Government health inspectors, that injured lumber workers be allowed chiropractic treatment if they so desired under the Workmen's Compensation Board; that the Provincial Government place more safety inspectors in the field, and that an all-out drive be established to assure guaranteed full-rate annual wages in the lumbering industry.

The convention also attacked alleged black market operations, and demanded that "a commission be set up to investigate the black market in lumber and other commodities."

Many Will Miss W. H. Wightman On Retirement

After more than 20 years' service with David Spencer Ltd., W. H. Wightman, store superintendent, has retired, it was learned yesterday.

During his service with David Spencer, Ltd., Mr. Wightman made friends with literally hundreds of persons, both within the department store staff and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Wightman, who reside at 1311 Victoria Avenue, came to Canada from England in 1914. After four years in Calgary they came to this city.

Many and interesting are the experiences Mr. Wightman will remember since he started at the department store. Although modest about the fact, he has often traveled a total of about 20 miles in the course of a day's work in the large building.

Alexander, C.B., D.S.O., chairman of the Victoria committee of the Red Cross Society Blood Transfusion Service, will give a short address over CJVI today at 12 45 p.m. on the blood donor campaign which is scheduled here February 3 to 28. General Alexander will be followed by Colonel Alan Fraser, O.B.E., R.C.A.M.C., who commanded No. 12 Canadian General [illegible]

Valuable Watch Reported Stolen

Theft of a valuable wrist watch from his room was reported to police yesterday by Richard Rogers, 1017 Catherine Street.

A wallet containing $33 and personal papers was stolen from his room in a downtown hotel on Friday evening, police were informed yesterday by Albert E. Reason.

Mrs. H. Biggar, from whose home at 1528 Regents Place a large quantity of jewelry was stolen recently, reported to police that a bracelet, believed to be part of the loot, was found outside the house Friday night.

Slippery Roads Still Hazard To Motorists

Drive carefully!

These two words sum up the advice given all motorists by police departments of Greater Victoria, and the provincial Department of Public Works yesterday.

The frost spell will continue today, according to information released by the weatherman, and roads and highways will be danger- [illegible] has been done on the Sooke and Island Highways, but many sections are still dynamite, police reported.

Although ice remained on the Island Highway throughout yesterday, there were no accidents reported between the city and the Malahat, Provincial Police stated. Saanich police reported several accidents, all due to icy roads. There were no serious accidents reported to city, Oak Bay or Esquimalt police departments yesterday. Most motorists realized the danger of slippery roads and were cautious.

Police officials remarked that sections of roads and highways not exposed to sunlight remain exceptionally dangerous.

Canadian Citizenship

The first citizen of Canada by virtue of his office is His Majesty, King George VI. On Christmas Day, following the precedent of his father, His Majesty spoke over an Empire-wide radio network, and what he said will sum up in great part the thoughts of the average Canadian as he, or she, faces the tasks imposed by citizenship in our growing and unspoiled land. In the King's message to the British Commonwealth was this:

"We have survived the greatest upheaval in human history. Our hard-won liberties and our democratic institutions are unimpaired. Our Commonwealth and Empire, though subject to the changes that time must bring, has not been disrupted by the stress and peril of war. We are celebrating Christmas as free men and in peace. And though the clouds are still dark, there is light behind them. Better days lie ahead. Let us not concentrate too much on the difficulties of the present—they will pass—so rather let us think of the possibilties that the future may hold for us . . .

"We cannot all think alike amid the dilemma of a changing world. Nor is it right that we should. Opinion striking against opinion ignites the spark that can kindle the lamp of truth. But if our feet are on the road of common charity that leads to the ultimate truth, our differences will never destroy our underlying unity and our disputes will not leave us either embittered or unkind. If the coming year has its uncertainties it has also its promises. By God's help and our own endeavor, let us make these brighter promises come true."

A people become a nation in many ways. Part of the process for Canada began some 400 years ago with explorers who were out to find "a new world." It continued with early settlement on the Eastern seaboard and along the banks of the great St. Lawrence River. Settlement, migration and re-settlement all had their parts in the very roots of this land. The fur trade led men north and west. The days of Upper and Lower Canada were succeeded by that stretching and growing so typical of this wide land. Confederation was a long stride forward in nationhood, as it was in the essentials of democratic life.

A Vast Land

Through the years, the country was to mould its inhabitants on its own spacious lines. Great mountains, rivers that flow 1,000 miles to the sea, a vast sweep of prairie and tundra, contact with three of the great oceans of the world, all of these things bred men of energy and vision, and women of endurance and stability. It is so today. Pioneering still, Canada faces in her next century the fulfillment of many natural promises. There is room and breadth and scope for all who wish freedom, and who will extend it to others. The United Empire Loyalists, the brilliant outpouring of a Dalhousie, the wide-angled lens of Western eyes, the native genius of this land in its many parts is not dead. Rather it is confirmed with each fresh century.

At Paardeberg, on the Modder River, men fought for Canada. At Ypres and Vimy, at Ortona, Caen and Falaise, they held their own with the world's best. Now comes the opportunity to use the freedom there so gallantly earned. From Saxon, Gaelic, Gallic and many other roots have come the men and women who today are proclaimed citizens of Canada. They have good models to go by, forebears who eschewed bigotry, truculence, roguery, indolence and profligacy in any form. They have inherited the rule of law in its Houses of Parliament, man's highest achievement in the record of human time. They have a rich, unspoiled land in a vast "new world." Inasmuch as they give truly of themselves, soberly, honestly and willingly, they will justify the title of citizen, and consecrate it to the eternal dignity of man. Canadian citizenship is a challenge with as great a promise as this world has anywhere to offer. May we use it well.

Punitive Tax Levies

Mr. C. Fraser Elliott, former deputy minister of national revenue, is not on sound ground when he implies that with the end of the war the Canadian sense of moral values in connection with tax payments is receding. Mr. Elliott, recently appointed Canadian Ambassador to Chile, speaks from the background of many years' experience as this country's chief tax collector, but in this instance it would seem as though he is drawing wrong conclusions. The proportion of individuals who resort to tax evasions must be no greater than has obtained at any time in this or any other country.

During the war the Canadian people dug manfully into their pockets to provide the taxes needed for its prosecution. It is not evasion of their responsibilities that makes them look for an easement of the present heavy burden now that hostilities are long over. It can hardly be said that any people pay taxes of any kind with a blithe spirit; impositions of this nature are recognized as a necessary evil, but they are paid willingly enough in the main. This country has no large-scale record of serious evasion of taxes through illegal means, in peace or in war. Its tax rates were among the highest in the world.

Mr. Elliott concedes that in his experience he found the people as a whole "basically desirous" of complying with the law. That is obvious. This is a law-abiding country, even in the matter of paying punitive income taxes. The former revenue official's appre- [illegible] Canadians will continue to pay the imposts budgeted on them, albeit sometimes with a wry gesture. What they protest at the moment is the continuance of the excessively high rate of taxation which has carried over from the wartime emergency, and which is no longer necessary. That is the cause of the disquiet which Mr. Elliott has misread. Moreover, war levels of taxation must be brought down.

On Foreign Soil

There will be a link of gratitude fashioned between the bereaved relatives of soldiers of this country who sleep in a quiet cemetery at Ortona, and the Italian women of that little town who have taken unto themselves the care of these Canadian graves. It is a reminder that war is no respector of persons, and that the hearts of mothers on both sides may beat in common sympathy for those who fall in battle.

Ortona was the scene of one of the most bitter struggles between the Canadian forces and their German enemies. That name is now inscribed on the honor roll of the army's campaign in Italy, but it was an action that brought many casualties to Canadian ranks. The fallen rest in the Moro River military cemetery a short distance from the town. It was to that sacred plot of earth that a procession of women's organizations recently proceeded to lay flowers on the Canadian graves. Another women's group has adopted the burial ground and will tend it in the years ahead.

Survivors of the Ortona action will have many memories of that battle, and of those comrades left behind for eternity. So, also, have those families which suffered the loss of loved ones on that occasion, saddened on their part by the vacancies which exist around the family hearth. In some degree at least their sorrow will be assuaged by this kindly gesture on the part of the inhabitants of a former enemy town. Not least among their recollections in future will be the kinship thus shown between a sex which so often has to bear in silence the sacrifice of wars not of their making. The tending of these Canadian graves by the women of Ortona is a warm and worthy action that will be appreciated in this country.

Sleeping

The eternal mystery of life held in suspension, of growth conceived but not put forth, is that of the soil in its Winter rest. Frost, to an inch or to many feet, may have sealed the surface, but below, man's most patient mother, Earth, is gathering those reserves from which soon will burst in all its glory the new Spring. The patient collection of moisture in vast water tables, the rejuvenation of listless soils, the jealous nursing of seeds from which life may be repeated in myriad diversity of form, all of this goes on quietly under the frost-sealed surface. It is as if our common mother, withholding nothing in season but not to be hurried by an instant, had said to herself: "There is a season for everything: and this is the time for rest." The giant roots of the cedar, the frail shell of a brown lily bulb, even the insects to service the soil and its cover, are nursed in a steady, patient lap. Let the sun rise a little higher at the meridian, let the frost strike a little less chill at night, and the first scouts will be sent above the surface to see how they may fare. If they thrive, legion after legion will follow: until the world is reclothed, dressed in the verdure of a beauty as old as Eden, as new as the first snowdrop which bends before the bluff north wind. It is the ancient, unfailing miracle of an economy much older than that of man.

The Wanderer

Upon a mountain height, far from the sea,
I found a shell,
And to my listening ear the lonely thing
Ever a song of ocean seemed to sing.
Ever a tale of ocean seemed to tell.

How came the shell upon that mountain height?
Ah, who can say
Whether there dropped by some too careless hand.
Or whether there cast when Ocean swept the Land,
Ere the Eternal had ordained the Day?

Strange, was it not? Far from its native deep,
One song it sang.—
Sang of the awful mysteries of the tide,
Sang of the misty sea: profound and wide—
Ever with echoes of the ocean rang.

And as the shell upon the moutain height,
Sings of the sea,
So do I ever, leagues and leagues away—
So do I ever, wandering where I may—
Sing, O my home! sing, O my home! of thee.

The Third Column

By TOM TAYLOR

HISTORICAL VERITIES

As you grow older and supplement your reading from other sources you learn to doubt the verities of the history books which bulk large in your early education. Most of them you have to accept at their face value because of lack of time to pursue a given subject later, but invariably you come across certain [illegible] some of the conceptions you imbibed with youthful innocence.

We have discussed before in this column the merits of contemporary and subsequent historical accounts. It has become almost a truism that history is better written long after the event, although we confess to difficulty in accepting this dictum bolus bolus. It seems to us that the generation which lives while something is happening is in a fairly good position to have some ideas about it. Particularly nowadays, when communications are so widespread that no incident of importance can occur without it sharing the breakfast table with the morning coffee.

Historians of past events may be able to evaluate the evidence without the heat engendered by personal participation, but there must be some loss in lack of the contemporary feel about men and events that most people experience while history is being made.

SURPRISING STATEMENT

Normally at least, you would assume that the present generation knows something of the war that has just finished, and the factors which brought it about. Which is why they are as likely to be as surprised as we are at the news item which quotes a distinguished English historian as saying it is bias that makes us think the Allies were more in the right than the Germans or Japanese.

It is perhaps unfair to discuss a quoted extract without the full context of the speech before you, but it would seem that no qualification could alter the import of this statement, which is reported as having been made by Dr. George Macaulay Trevelyan, O.M., before a historical association conference.

Dr. Trevelyan, in his own and in his inherited prestige, is a very distinguished figure and has an awesome list of serious works to his credit, which merely adds to our discomfiture over his remark.

Because if it is an indication of the historical point of view regarding our times, histories of the future would make strange reading for the generations which have just finished six years' toil and sweat in the belief they were stopping evil and deliberate aggressors.

BIAS AND TRUTH

The British historian concedes that the Allied point of view is true, but says it is a bias just the same. We always thought a bias was a prejudice which distorted the truth, and which was, in fact, the main reason for the peculiar picture presented in so many national histories.

No one would advocate that the Allies be set up on pedestals of virtue, but if six years of war is any criterion they are almost entitled to a halo compared to their late enemies. It seems preposterous to say it is a bias that makes them think they were more right.

From this judgment of Dr. Trevelyan you would never guess that a more weighty judgment had spoken at Nuernberg. Or that the revelations at that long, scrupulously honest trial were so evil as to make you wonder how human beings could connive such horror and destruction. Or that the equally bestial treatment handed out by the Japanese in their hours of success did not separate them in marked degree from their eventual conquerors.

CRYSTAL CLEAR

However, if it is a bias to believe that behind the might of Allied arms was also a right based on moral hatred of naked force and deliberate aggression, then we hope future historians will not make the mistake of trying to alter the implied distortion.

For, Dr. Trevelyan notwithstanding, this will be one contemporary view that does not require the emendation of some austere historian yet to arrive on the scene.

War is such a ghastly business that the truth tends to become overlaid with ambiguities and reservations. One thing has been crystal clear, however, since the day Hitler first threatened the peace of the world, and that was that the decent people of the globe had to take up arms to stop him and his devotees. It is really as simple as that, and surely beyond all possible doubt.

Which makes it incomprehensible that at the end of it all someone should pontificate about the Allies being no more right than their enemies.

Flin Flon Origin Lost in Maze of Legends

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

FLIN FLON, Man., Jan. 3 (CP)—Some say the name was Professor Flin Flon, others that it was Flintabatty Flonatin, but they agree that the name of the novel in which he was the hero was "The Sunless City," and that it was appropriate for this rugged mining town perched on the rock and muskeg of the Precambrian Shield.

The hazy history of the naming of this town of some 9,000 miners, fishermen, trappers and lumbermen, 250 miles northwest of Regina, is traced by one group of historians to a lonely prospector who found a novel on a Churchill River portage in 1914, in which a Professor Flin Flon was the hero. He liked the name and gave it to the present site of the town, the story goes. But no one today has ever come across a copy of the novel.

Partisans of the other explanation say the character in the novel was named Flintabatty Flonatin and that he descended in a submarine to the Sunless City where gold was used for all construction.

A group of prospectors are said to have remembered the story when they were doing early work on a claim which centred on a conical hole. They named it Flin Flon.

There are more than 2,000 "Flintabatty Flonatins" descending into the mine of the Hudson Mining and Smelting Company here every day now to delve not only for gold, but for copper, silver, aluminum, cadmium and the purest zinc in the world.

Although when anyone refers to "The Company" it is taken for granted that the H.B.M.S. company is the one referred to, the town is also a big fishing centre. More than $1,000,000 worth of fish from teeming northern lakes were marketed through Flin Flon last year.

The fish find their way to markets across Canada and in the United States by air or along the Canadian National Railways, the only methods of getting to the "outside."

But there is talk now of "The Road"—the 100-foot right-of-way being sliced through rock and muskeg between Flin Flon and Nipawin, Sask., 140 miles southwest of here. The highway will provide a new outlet for fish and a new route for the products of the agriculturally rich Carrot River Valley around Nipawin. The $1,000,000 road, which it is expected will be completed in 1948, will open new lumber areas, also important to Flin Flon's economy.

Flin Flon is an infant which first began to grow in the late 1920's when the Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Company made an initial outlay of $27,000,000 for the mine, mill, concentrators, smelter and power development, before a single ton of ore was treated.

Power comes from the unique wilderness community of Island Falls, 70 miles northwest of Flin Flon, where a huge dam on the Churchill River produces the hydroelectric power serving the plant at Flin Flon as well as cheap power to the town. Street lights are left burning the year round as the city believes bulbs last longer when not turned off and on.

Only 379 people live on the Saskatchewan side of Flin Flon, but the ore body lies astride the border with most of it mined in Saskatchewan. When mining operations began in the early 1930's the Manitoba Government signed an agreement releasing the company from tax obligations. The agreement expires next year.

The Saskatchewan Government, however, last year obtained $800,000 in taxes from minerals taken out of the mine.

PRICE-WAGE SPIRAL

Sir,—According to the reports of Mr. Harold Pritchett, president of the District Council of the International Woodworkers of America, has brought up again the bogey of big business in order to justify to the members of the I.W.A. the proposition to again work for, or rather to agitate for, a further increase in wages.

One wonders whether Mr. Pritchett realizes, as so many of the workers are beginning to realize, that these days labor itself is big business, and that like any other business it needs brains, toil and above all co-operation, and that the continual pressure for and attainment of higher and higher wages may be bad business for everybody and particularly for the worker who discovers that his swollen pay cheque purchases less of the necessities of life.

The worker will note that the first effect on him as a union member is to be required to contribute by higher assessment to the digging of what, if carried to the extremes that some of the leaders advocate, may be the grave of labor.

Mr. Pritchett is evidently following the tactics recommended to the C.I.O. by Mr. Nathan, who, if he really is the expert he is credited with being, must realize that the policy advocated is to "get yours anyway," whether it is for the general good or not, but if it is not for the general good of the majority, it is certainly not for the good of the worker, for one thing is certain in an uncertain world, and that is that the workers form the majority.

Let us all, whether we be workers or employers, think less about "big business" and more about what is "good business."

BACON PRICES

Sir,—I was very amused to hear the news over the B.B.C. this morning that as a result of a new contract, the Canadian Government had made with the British Government that "Canadians would now pay $29 per hundredweight for bacon instead of $25."

Apart from a few very lucky persons, it is quite impossible to obtain any bacon whatsoever in Victoria, but six months ago when I had my last taste of bacon it was then 75c a pound—$75 a hundredweight, so the dear old B.B.C., usually so accurate, is this time way off the beam.

The next delightful piece of news for 1947 is that Hon. Ian Mackenzie is now a Privy Councillor.

The wonderful King Government still deny a cost of living bonus on the pensions of the disabled veterans of 1914-1918, the only group in Canada so penalized.

If you will pardon me the old and revered Victorian, Mr. John Dean, was right when he said: "It's a rotten world; politicians are its bane." My fervent hope and belief is that the present Cabinet will all go, as they richly deserve, for half starving the disabled men of the Great War.

POINT ELLICE BRIDGE

Sir,—Your editorial in today's Colonist under the caption "Action Is Needed" is very timely and very much to the point.

If the safety of any bridge on a public highway (in this particular case, Point Ellice Bridge) is contingent on the public observing a certain speed limit, then those responsible for this state of affairs are definitely inviting disaster.

Indeed, the safety factor on many wooden bridges on our highways is being reduced to a very dangerous margin now that they are being subjected to excessive loads and speeds never contemplated when first designed.

Victoria in Beard and Crinoline

From Files of The British Colonist for December, 1859

By G. E. MORTIMORE

After blasting governmental abuses verbally for a year, Editor Amor De Cosmos of The British Colonist announced his intention of translating protests into action. He accepted nomination for the Legislative Assembly, with these words:

"Gentlemen — I thank you sincerely for the honor of requesting me to stand as a Candidate to represent Victoria Town in the Assembly, and for the cordial expression of your confidence."

We went on to give a three-column exposition of his platform, advocating "the introduction of such organic reforms as will establish responsible Government, by which the Legislative, Executive and Judicial departments will be held responsible to the people for their acts.

"I hold the Legislative Council and Assembly are too small to admit—with safety to the people—among their members any official of the Crown, holding a place of emolument or profit."

That statement was far from superfluous, since more than one highly-placed Civil Servant stood for election.

"Good roads being vitally necessary, they should radiate from Victoria to the various parts of the Island. . . . To centre Commerce and Navigation as much as possible in Victoria, I will lend a hearty co-operation to any well-digested scheme to enlarge, deepen and improve Victoria harbor . . ."

(It's easy to see that Mr. De Cosmos didn't have his way, because in 1946 we are still waiting for some of those things.)

George H. Cary, who as Attorney-General of the two colonies was then a paid Civil Servant, was among the candidates. In a report of a meeting, The Colonist dismissed him thus:

"The proceedings of the evening demonstrated Mr. Cary to be an aspiring, self-confident, energetic young man, sadly destitute of political knowledge and broad views of constitutional government. . . . Ten years hence, if he is patient and diligent, he may creditably fill a position for which he is at present wholly unqualified."

Another candidate, and the paper which supported him, received short shrift:

"MR. FRANKLIN — Wednesday's Gazette contains a long editorial in defence of this gentleman's election address. The writer puffs as laboriously and painfully as a hack bad with the heaves. A tithe of the valuable (?) space thus wasted would have been occupied to better purpose by a few statements from Mr. F. on the points on which this address is vague and non-committal."

No doubt excluding himself, Mr. De Cosmos wrote the following criticism of candidates which might apply in part to many modern elections: "A wonderful deal of unanimity seems to exist among the candidates for parliamentary honors on this Island. They all promise the same reforms, and pledge their support to the same public measures.

"One of the few points upon which there is diversity of view, is the public debt. One declares that it does not exist; another emphatically vows to repudiate it; while others, too much in the dark or too non-committal to say anything about it, maintain a prudent silence."

Another political editorial is denied to the 1946 reader, for some unknown vandal has taken a large clipping from The Colonist's priceless and irreplaceable file. The scissors fortunately missed this little gem:

"A certain naval officer had better be careful about interfering in elections, as his father was removed from a dockyard in England for indiscretion in politics."

Bilbo Is Denied Seat in Senate As Republicans Assume Control

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Republicans won their fight late today to deny Senator Bilbo (Dem., Miss.) his seat at the opening of the new Senate and took formal control for the first time in 14 years.

By consent of the ailing Bilbo the question of seating him was pigeonholed for at least two months pending a hearing and he headed back South for a new cancer operation.

Swiftly then, after the two-day delay caused by the battle, the Senate elected Senator Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.) as presiding officer and the rest of the G.O.P. organization set-up—Carl Loeffler secretary and Edward McGinnis, of Chicago, sergeant-at-arms.

It notified President Truman that it is ready for business and received his best wishes. Then it adjourned until Monday when, in joint session with the House, it will hear the President's message on the state of the Union.

With Bilbo sitting in the cloakroom, Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) outlined the agreement to the crowded Chamber and packed galleries. It enabled Bilbo to draw his pay, but not to take the oath for his new third term.

By unanimous consent, the agreement was immediately approved by the Senators.

With a tensely dramatic statement that "a man's life is more important than a seat in the United States Senate or any other body," Barkley won permission to delay action on Bilbo for six weeks or two months until doctors certify he can return to Washington.

The resulting agreement marked the first victory of the 80th Congress for the Republicans.

They had insisted that the Mississippian not be seated among them while the Senate considers charges that Bilbo misused his office for personal gain in dealing with war contractors and violated Federal statutes by preventing Negroes from voting. By today's action they gained their point at least temporarily.

Bilbo, described by Dr. George D. Calver, the Capitol physician, as suffering from a cancerous ailment, told a reporter immediately after the Senate acted that he is not giving up his fight for a seat.

"If I live, I'll be back here with my fighting clothes on," Bilbo declared.

Report Condemns Shocking Condition

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4 (AP).—A grand jury of 14 women and seven men said it was "appalled, shocked, horrified and disgusted" at conditions existing at the Philadelphia Home for the Indigent.

"We have concluded," the jury said in a report, "that old age and poverty are more sins and crimes (according to the treatment received) than assault and battery, robbery, manslaughter, or almost any felony on the docket."

Heart Massage Revives Man

LONDON, Jan. 4 (CP).—Lancet, the British Medical Journal, today told the story of a man whose heart stopped beating for 12 minutes but who revived under massage and who now is walking about London fully recovered.

The patient, who was unnamed, was given up as lifeless when Hamilton Bailey, a London surgeon, performed a quick operation and began massaging the heart. The heart started, stopped and then started beating normally. Seventeen hours after the operation, Dr. Bailey reported in Lancet, the patient spoke to his nurse.

Dr. Bailey said the chance of death under anaesthetic is estimated at 1,000 to 1 and added: "If the patient is in tolerably good condition before he is anaesthetised and the heart is allowed to stand still for not more than 1½ minutes, it is improbable he will suffer harm or even any inconvenience over and above that occasioned by an upper abdominal operation.

"Reports show that cardiac massage can bring back to life those whose hearts have ceased to beat under ordinary form of anaesthesia."

Bank Holdup Men Captured

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 4 (AP).—Two men said by Prosecuting Attorney Leslie M. Carroll to have confessed Friday's $2,500 holdup of the Lamont State Bank at St. John, Wash., today were arraigned on charges which a justice of the peace told them could result in the death penalty.

The two are William Watts, 23, and Francis Freund, 24, both of Minot, N.D., who were captured at a nearby Dishman, Wash., auto court last night only seven hours after the bank holdup.

They were charged in Superior Court today with two counts of kidnapping. Detective Ralph Weir reported earlier that a laundry truck driver and cabbie had been forced at different times last night to drive two men about town and into neighboring towns.

Officers said all of the stolen money was recovered along with four guns.

WARMER IN U.S.A.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—Clearing skies and rising temperatures brought relief tonight to large sections of the country that had been beset by heavy snow or sleet storms and severe cold. Weather forecasters said near normal Winter weather would return to most parts of the country by late Sunday except in the East, where temperatures will remain low.

Council Protests Land Tenure Act

DURBAN, Jan. 4 (CP).—The Native Passive Resistance Council has asked Durban City Council to cancel arrangements for the Indian reception to the King and Queen just outside Durban during this year's Royal visit.

Dr. O. M. Naicker, president of the council, said the request was made because the Indians in South Africa were "engaged in a life-and-death struggle."

He said refusal to take part in the Royal visit celebrations was part of the Indian protest against the Asiatic Land Tenure and Indian Representation Act which became law last year. He said the refusal was not intended to indicate disrespect toward Their Majesties or the English-speaking community of the Union.

Employer Groups Are Accused In Portal-to-Portal Pay Suits

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Lee Pressman, the C.I.O.'s key lawyer in multi-billion dollar suits for back pay on a portal-to-portal basis, accused "employer groups" tonight of trying to hamper fair settlement.

Pressman did not name the groups in issuing a statement as claims in the cases passed the $3,000,000,000 mark. He said:

"It is plain that employer groups in this country are seeking to generate an atmosphere in which it will be impossible for the district court (trying the test case) to give adequate consideration to the sound principles enunciated by the supreme court and to the merits of the workers' claims."

The key case is in district court at Detroit under Federal Judge Frank A. Picard; it involves employees of the Mt. Clemens Pottery Company who sued for back pay under the Wage and Hour Act for time spent getting to their work posts and preparing for their jobs.

The supreme court approved the general idea last June but left to Picard to determine the exact amount due and he is concerned with that problem now. U.S. Attorney-General Tom C. Clark has intervened on the part of the Government to help clear up the point.

Pressman said the C.I.O. also would seek to intervene before Picard "in order that the principles established by the (supreme court) decision may be presented to the district court as fully and fairly as possible."

Since the supreme court action many unions, largely C.I.O. affiliates, hastened to get similar suits filed before Congress could limit employer liability in the session which began Friday. The National Association of Manufacturers and the United States Chamber of Commerce made it clear they would seek relief in Congress.

Rep. Hoffman (Rep.-Mich.) has introduced a bill in the House to wipe out such claims for back pay.

Ottawa Begins Consideration Of New Legislative Program

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP).—The holiday season now over, the Government is giving increasing attention to the legislative program it will place before Parliament when M.P.'s and senators gather for the new session January 30.

Probably the most important—and likely the most contested—of the bills which will appear on the order paper will be those dealing with the continuation of the control measures which up to now have been kept in operation under the expiring Emergency Transitional Powers Act.

The details of these bills are not yet known but it is considered likely they will call for continued control over rentals, prices and distribution of foods and other commodities in short supply.

However, it is believed that before Parliament meets, the Government will take action to discontinue any controls which it feels can be done without and need not be put into statutory form.

Some such action already has been taken, such as the removal of certain coal subsidies the other day and the disbanding of wage and salary controls last month, but other steps are believed imminent. For instance, it is believed possible some modification of rentals regulations may be announced within the next two weeks.

Controls which will stay probably will be those which directly affect Canada's cost of living, such as food prices, clothing costs and rentals generally. Rationing of meats, sugar and butter definitely will remain until supply positions have [illegible]

Among other legislation to go before the House is a bill which will give the farmers of Canada generally a better deal. This will be a measure aimed at extending to all Canada the provisions of the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act, under which irrigation, conservation and other works have been undertaken in the West.

The new bill is expected to provide for similar work, possibly in co-operation with the Provincial Governments, in all farm areas where local problems such as the reclamation of marsh lands and the prevention of soil erosion arise.

Whisky Firm Price Revoked

VANCOUVER, Jan. 4 (CP).—A special dispatch to The Vancouver Province from Washington reports that as a preliminary to an action for damages which may reach $65,000,000 and to a possible criminal conspiracy case, the Office of Price Administration has officially revoked the price of Harwood's whisky, distilled in Vancouver, on grounds of fraud.

The dispatch continues, in part:

The price action is a formality now that ceilings have been removed but cancellation of the retail figure of $8.14 a bottle and the corresponding wholesale prices which O.P.A. had set for the sale of Canadian whisky is a necessary step before prosecution of the importers for fraud in obtaining that price.

An "open-ended" damage suit with no total announced is being launched against the R. C. Williams Company of New York, the importers, in the Southern District Court of New York.

It is understood O.P.A. will claim an overcharge of $12 a case and that about 2,000,000 cases of whisky were imported. Under price ceilings triple damages can be sought. At least $65,000,000 is mentioned as a possible figure—greatest single damage claim ever made by O.P.A.

The continent-wide investigation is related in Vancouver to charges of perjury against Robert "Soup" Bracken, 72-year-old former printer and ex-pugilist, and Oswald Thomas, proprietor of East End Printers.

(Their preliminary hearing will open in Vancouver Police Court, January 10. Four or five witnesses from Washington, D.C. will take the stand. Charges centre about a prices list submitted to O.P.A.)

Fish Control Removal Asked

VANCOUVER, Jan. 4 (CP).—Removal of price ceilings and controls on fish and fish products well before the opening of the 1947 fishery production season is being sought by organized commercial fisheries in British Columbia. They are asking the Prices Board to remove such controls not later than March 31.

The request is contained in a resolution adopted at a meeting of commercial fishing interests including wholesale distributors' associations of Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

Another resolution passed by the meeting asks that the Federal Government discontinue customs duties and other tariffs on all instruments of production imported into Canada for use in fisheries.

A third resolution asks for removal of the export embargo on fish meals, fish oils and vitamin oils not later than June 1.

DIES ACCIDENTALLY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Nathaniel Green Cruzen, 22, son of Rear Admiral Richard H. Cruzen, commander of the navy's current Antarctic expedition, was found dead today in a duck blind near Indianhead, Md. Dr. Edward J. Edelen, deputy coroner, said the youth's shotgun apparently had discharged accidentally.

Russia Asks United States To Hand Over "A Criminal"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Russia asked the United States today to hand over "a criminal," one of its citizens who walked out of his trade mission job in Mexico and decided to stay in America and blast "dictatorship" in his homeland.

The Soviet Union asked the United States State Department to launch a regular manhunt for Kirill Alekseev, accusing him of embezzlement, treachery, treason, provocation, slander and failing to go home when he was supposed to.

The State Department took the request under consideration. It said a decision would be made later. Such officials as were at work Saturday afternoon doubted that the United States has an extradition agreement with Russia, but were searching the records.

Alekseev, who brought his situation into the open with a public statement last Tuesday, was quiet for the moment. He had accused the Russian Government of being a dictatorship hated by its people and said he wouldn't put his family in its power again.

In its first recognition of Alekseev's existence the Soviet Embassy here sent a note around to the State Department today accusing its citizen and former employee of having "embezzled a considerable amount of money, property of the State," when he was employed on a Russian trade mission in Mexico.

Early this week in New York Martin Richmond, an attorney, issued a statement in behalf of a man he identified as Kirill M. Alexeiev, formerly a Soviet commercial employee in Mexico.

The statement sharply criticized the Soviet Union on many points and declared the writer would not "return to my homeland and doom my family, which has become accustomed to breathe the fresh air of freedom, to a life under the hell of dictatorship."

Richmond said the Russian, his wife and two children were living with friends in the United States. A Soviet Embassy spokesman said in Mexico City that the man they seek had left there two months ago to return to the Soviet Union by way of the United States.

Drought Kills Karakul Sheep

WINDHOEK, South Africa, Jan. 4 (CP).—South West Africa is experiencing its worst drought in living memory.

At least 1,000,000 valuable Karakul sheep worth more than $12,000,000 have already died, and if no rain falls soon another $9,000,000 will be lost.

Cattle losses are just as serious and a great trek of farmers searching for pasture is on. An estimated 300,000 sheep have already crossed into the Union.

Col. [illegible] tor of Southwest Africa, said the drought is the worst in 50 years. "The territory has had three dry years and the cumulative effect is very serious. All Crown land suitable for grazing has been made available to farmers.

"The native population has also been hard hit. On my instructions medical officers have inspected the reserves and locations, and as a result many children, physically unfit persons and pensioners are being fed at the expense of the Administration."

RAM GETS RECORD PRICE

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP).—A champion Corriedale woolly ram hogget from the flock of the late H. T. Little of Woodgrove, North Canterbury, has been sold to Senor Mario Pascual of Montevideo, Uruguay, at what is claimed to be the world record price of $4,032.

Asthma Suffering Stopped Quickly

Mr. O. G. Beasley, Truro, N. S., was asthmatic, would cough and choke for hours every night, couldn't sleep. Tried many medicines but was not helped. Mendaco quickly stopped his attacks and he now feels better than for years. To prove that Mendaco may do the same for you, we make this liberal trial offer. Get Mendaco from your druggist today! Unless it loosens and removes thick strangling mucus, brings free breathing, restful sleep and frees you from the suffering of Asthma attacks, return the empty package and get all your money back. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose. So don't suffer another day without asking your druggist for Mendaco.

Blanche Bridgman Bride of T. Smith

First United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on December 26 when Blanche May Gwenalda, only daughter of Mrs I. M Bridgman and the late Mr. O. H Bridgman, of Wadena, Sask., became the bride of Mr Thomas Henry Smith, of Victoria. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. McLeod, and during the signing of the register Mr. Don Olivar sang "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Mr O. W Bridgman, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white satin, featuring a sweetheart neckline and bouffant skirt. Her veil cascaded from a satin Dutch cap and her only ornament was a double strand of pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of rosebuds gardenias and baby mums.

Mrs S W. Porritt, of Vancouver, as matron of honor, was charming in a floor-length gown of pale blue sheer with quilted jacket. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. The little flower girl, Carla Boe, of Vancouver, was a picture in a frock of pale yellow sheer with ruffled skirt. She carried a nosegay of tiny white mums and carnations, and had a bandeau of mums in her hair.

Mr. S. W Porritt, of Vancouver, supported the groom.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, 1070 Davie Street, where Mrs O. W. Bridgman and Mrs. I M Bridgman assisted in receiving the guests. The bride's table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mr O. W. Bridgman proposed the toast to the bride

Later the young couple left for a short honeymoon Up-Island, the bride traveling in an oyster grey suit with black and gold accessories, muskrat topcoat with gardenia corsage

The bride, who is a graduate of the Saskatoon City Hospital, served as a nursing sister with the R.C.A.M.C. during the war. The groom, a former member of the R.C.M.P., also served overseas as an officer with the R.C.A.F., and is now a member of the Victoria city police

Nurses Institute To Be Held Here

An Institute for Hospital Head Nurses, to be held in Victoria on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 9 to 11, 1947, is being sponsored by the Registered Nurses' Association of British Columbia

The institute will be conducted by Mrs. Mary Tschudin, of the University of Washington, and is attracting interest among nurses in many parts of the province who are planning to attend. Sessions will alternate between St Joseph's and Royal Jubilee Hospitals, commencing at St Joseph's Hospital on January 9, with registration at 9 30 a.m. Morning sessions will be held from 9 to 11 30 and afternoon sessions from 1 to 3 30

Topics to be discussed include "The Place of the Head Nurse in Hospital Organization," "Supervision of Nursing Service Personnel," "Ward Management," "Ward Teaching," "The Head Nurse as a Clinical Instructor" and "Conference Techniques"

Miss M. R. Diederichs, of St. Joseph's Hospital, is in charge of arrangements.

Women's Institutes

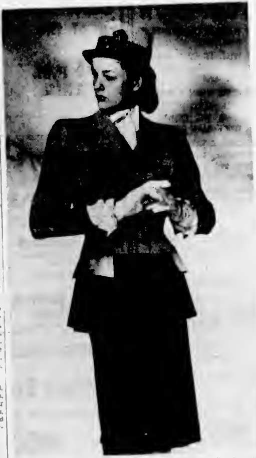
The Esquimalt W.I. met recently in the parish hall with Mrs. McDuff, newly-appointed president, in the chair. She was welcomed by Mrs H Yarrett, retiring president who held office for three years. Committees were appointed for 1947. A tea will be held at the home of Mrs. McDuff in February.

For Brides-Elect

Miss Marie Kerr was hostess recently at the home of her mother, Mrs C. Kerr, 711 Wilson Street, in honor of her cousin, Miss Daphne Fairall, a January bride-elect. During the evening Miss Fairall was presented with a gardenia corsage, and Mrs. J Fairall and Mrs. J. McCall were presented with corsages of pink carnations. The guest of honor was also the recipient of a hand-painted lamp. Guests included Mrs. J Morgan, Mrs. O. Brown, Mrs. S Pocock, Mrs. G. Coldwell, Mrs J Foster, Mrs B Merluck, Mrs. B Summers, Mrs D. Weir, Mrs P. Melnyk, Mrs S Emery, Mrs J Barnes, Mrs B Barnes, Mrs D Robertson, Mrs Roy Smith, of Port Angeles and Misses Greta Molin, Zena-Ann Emery, and Pat Kerr

DUBLIN (CP)—Pineapples were put on sale here recently at £5 5s ($21) apiece

New Fashion Features for Spring



MANY of the new fashion features for Spring are combined in this Molly suit, which is of gabardine. The important use of two colors, this time grey and navy, is carried out in the jacket, a new riding-habit silhouette which this designer is sponsoring. She drops the waistline low and extends the light color into a little peplum, with the navy gabardine below it. The navy skirt is slender and gored. Notice the slightly wider lapels and the loose, easy sleeves. The two-color hat is from Lilly Dache.

Mr. and Mrs H Williams, 419 John Street, entertained at a party at their home on New Year's Eve, when their guests were Mr and Mrs. C. Graham, Mr and Mrs S Tregear, Mr and Mrs I. Wright, Mr and Mrs J Hooper and Mr and Mrs J. Jones

I.O.D.E. Chapters

Victoria Naval Man Weds in East

At Bedford Park United Church, Toronto, on the afternoon of December 28, the marriage of Mary Isabel, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ben H. Spence, 87 Lawrence Avenue, W. Toronto, to Lieut. Orval Walter Bennett, R.C.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bennett, 316 Douglas Street, Victoria, was solemnized by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. George W. Wood, at a double-ring ceremony. Yuletide greenery and lighted tapers in two standard candelabra, formed the setting for the service for which the traditional music was played by Mr Alan Win- [illegible] soloist.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was charming in a white satin gown styled with fitted bodice, net yoke and full skirt sweeping into a train. Her long veil trimmed with heirloom lace, cascaded from a halo-headdress of the same lovely lace ornamented with seed pearls. She wore a strand of pearls which had been the gift of her father to her mother on their wedding day, and carried a cascade bouquet of red and white roses, white lilies and swainsona to complete her ensemble.

Mrs. John E Nicholson as matron of honor, wearing a floor-length gown of wine velvet fashioned on princess lines with bustle back and train, was her sister's only attendant.

The bridegroom had Lieut. Gordon D. Spergel, R.C.N., as his best man, and the ushers were Mr John Bourne and Mr. John E. Nicholson. The reception was held in the church hall where Mrs. Spence, attired in a pale blue crepe [illegible] with deep blue ostrich plume, and wearing a corsage of red roses and white carnations, received the guests with the young couple. The groom's parents were unable to attend.

For a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N.Y., the bride traveled in a deep coral wool crepe dress, brown coat and accessories, and a corsage of rosebuds and narcissi. Lieut and Mrs. Bennett will make their home in Halifax, N.S.

Best Dressed

MRS. HOWARD HAWKS

Wife of the Hollywood film producer, who has been awarded the title of "best dressed woman in the world," based on a poll of 150 fashion editors, stylists and social celebrities When told of the selection, Mrs. Hawks expressed delighted surprise, since most of the judges had never seen her, but had seen many pictures of her "If they ever saw me running around in my blue jeans and wild shirts they might change their minds," she added.

Well-Known Couple Mark Anniversary

—Colonist Photo.

Mr and Mrs David McKenzie, 2821 Shelbourne Street, will mark their 50th wedding anniversary tomorrow and will be at home to their friends from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs McKenzie, who were married January 6, 1897, at Belfast, Northern Ireland, in Clifton Street Church by Rev. Samuel Thompson, came to Canada in 1911 and have resided in Victoria ever since.

They have a family of nine, four sons, James, David and Hugh in Victoria, and Samuel in Port Alberni; and five daughters in Victoria, Mrs. W D Stuart Smith, Mrs. H. McDougall, Mrs. William Florence, Mrs O. Campion and Mrs A. Main. There are also eight grandchildren.

Princess Elizabeth Is Stamp Collector

LONDON Jan 4 (CP)—Latest pictures of Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret released to the British press show them in their private apartments in Buckingham Palace, where they work and relax in privacy

Princess Elizabeth's study furnished in Victorian style, has several easy chairs, but the centrepiece is a desk where she writes private letters and handles official correspondence

The princess opens her own mail, which has reached large propor[illegible]tions, partly because she is building up her independent stamp collection. Outgoing mail is placed in a basket marked "The Lady-in-Waiting."

The playroom, which used to be the princesses' schoolroom, is lined with glass-covered bookcases. The books include Shakespeare, Robert Louis Stevenson, Bronte, and many Highland romances

Victoria "Y" Departs From Custom In Making Extensive Summer Plans

Departing from the procedure of former years, the local Y.M.C.A. is planning an extensive Summer program, Bob Morrison, program director, said yesterday.

According to Mr. Morrison, the Summer season generally has been a slack part of the year, but in 1947 the situation will be reversed.

Hobbies will play an important part in the 1947 program. These will include leathercraft, under the direction of George West, drawing and painting under Bill Turkington, drama under Fred Cooper, photography under Maurice Pickering, and plastic classes.

Public speaking classes, under the direction of J. E. Paulding, will commence January 18 and will continue for 11 weeks. Dancing classes will get under way in about two weeks and will last about eight weeks. Additional hobbycrafts are being planned to commence later in the year.

RESERVATIONS OPEN FOR PLATEAU TRIP

Eight reservations are still open for the February 1 ski trip to Forbidden Plateau. Only a few vacancies are left for the trip on March 1 and the January 25 trip is full.

The Canoe Club, which was organized in the latter part of 1946, is planning an active Summer program. Instruction in handling canoes, portages, canoe trips and camp fires are included in the plans. Tennis, softball, hiking, camping and other outdoor activities will play a large part in the Summer program of the "Y."

There has been a large increase in membership in the past few months, a great number of the new members being young men and women recently arrived in Victoria, and the most successful year in the organization's history is anticipated this year.

In the program department special activities are being organized for boys from 15 to 18 years old, with special emphasis placed on training for leadership. The Phalanx Fraternity, a club for young men, is being reorganized and is now accepting new members.

The Men's Club for young business and professional men is being organized and will get under way in the near future. Members from New Westminster, Vancouver and Seattle will be invited to attend the charter night. The Nassak Club for older businessmen will also get under way shortly.

The Y.M.C.A. Music Hour will be held in the program room of the "Y" at 6.45 tonight. Beethoven's Fourth Piano Concerto will be the featured presentation.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt Drydock at any time, add 18.6 feet to the height of high water as above given.

18,205 Cars Loaded

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP).—Car loadings for the Christmas week dropped to 48,205 cars from 73,367 for the previous week. However, this total was 14 per cent greater than the corresponding total of 42,322 cars a year ago.

Increases in loadings of grain, coal, lumber, gasoline, pulp and paper, and merchandise, were the main factors in the increase over loadings last year.

Loadings for the 52 weeks of 1946 at 3,681,699 were higher than for any of the war years, and were 67,294 cars above the 1945 loadings.

Drive Slowly Chief Warns

Chief J. A. McLellan yesterday warned motorists to drive with extra care during freezing or fluctuating temperatures.

"Alternate freezing and thawing caused by temperature fluctuations during the day presents unexpected hazards to motorists," explained the chief. "For instance, some sections of the road which are exposed to the sun may thaw and dry during the day, while sections which are shaded from the sun may remain icy. On the other hand, during a drop in temperature, rain or moisture will often freeze on bridges sooner than on pavements, because the pavements receive warmth from the ground beneath.

"Drive slowly, and be watchful and ready for any emergency."

I.W.A. Official Says Price Increases Wiped Out Labor's Gains in Wages

Lifting of price ceilings in the United States was "one of the great sabotage acts in 1946 and increased prices wiped out all gains achieved in labor-wage campaigns," George Brown, Portland, director of organization, International Woodworkers of America, said here yesterday.

In an address to the 10th annual convention of the I.W.A. District Council No. 1 in the Empress Hotel, [illegible] ould happen in Canada.

"Wages are not the ultimate aim of labor," he said, declaring that "take-home-pay and the cost of living must be considered with wage demands."

"Wage increases," he said, "must come from present profits of business, and must not be used as a basis for a consumer increase in costs which only means more profits for the businessman and higher prices for the public."

CLAIMS WAREHOUSES HOLDING TEXTILES

In the United States, he claimed, textile warehouses are full of goods held by the manufacturers to gain a higher price for their products.

Harold Pritchett, president of the District Council, said that "as long as workers in Ontario and Quebec remain unorganized, Canada will suffer from the reactionary policies of a government that represents big business.

"The highly industrial areas of Eastern Canada," he explained, "send two-thirds of our Federal members to Parliament, and because labor is not well organized there, these members don't represent labor."

Edna Brown, district president of I.W.A. Women's Auxiliaries, reviewed progress made by the organizations during the past year, and stressed the need for enlisting the support of the public.

SAYS LABOR FACES CRITICAL PERIOD

Karly Larsen, Portland, International I.W.A. vice-president, told the meeting that labor was now facing the most critical period in its history.

A united labor front, said Mr. Larsen, was the only means to stem "the onslaught from manufacturers that is soon to come, both in the United States and Canada."

Use of an injunction against John L. Lewis by President Truman, he said, set a dangerous precedent against labor as a whole.

"The C.I.O. will launch another wage drive in 1947 to combat the employers who are now trying to weaken the labor movement by insidious propaganda," he said. "Unless this is done, we will head into a depression worse than the last."

Earlier, Andrew Whisker, chief enforcement officer for the British Columbia Department of Labor, ex- [illegible] accidents in the lumber industry.

Only remedy, he said, was a policy of safety enforcement with the solid co-operation of both worker and employer.

Books and Authors

Not since Jan Valtin's "Out of the Night" took the United States and Canada by storm in the early days of the war has the mystery background of a writer caused such a stir as that of Pierre Andrezel.

The name is now established as a pseudonym, but the true name of the author of "The Angelic Avengers" remains unknown despite the fact that the book has now received tremendous distribution on this continent as a December selection of the Book-of-the-Month Club.

First published in 1944 in a Den-the book was popular European reading, with its story of adventure and love. It was easy for the people of most occupied countries to recognize the cleverly concealed attack on Nazism. But the bold author did such an excellent job of tight-rope walking in his writing that the Germans were never able to adopt a clear-cut decision on what to do with the book.

Banning the book, or punishing the author—if they could find him (or her)—would have been a confession by the Gestapo to everything brought out in the volume.

WRITING SHOWS LITERARY SKILL

The writing is done with consummate literary skill, a fact that indicates the author is probably well established in the world of letters. In addition the creator of the story is outstanding at the art of story-telling.

Starting on a romantic theme, the story swings to its true theme of horror so slowly that the reader is shocked when he comes face to face with that horror.

To the two attractive girls who centre the story comes the same alternative that the Germans offered to the small Danish nation—to endorse Nazi ideals and live in comfort as an example to the world, or face annihilation. As was the case with the Danish people, so did the heroines of this story accept the risk of the alternative.

The book served then as a call to courage—physical and spiritual—but serves now to present the two girls as outstanding characters of fiction—warm-hearted, affectionate, alive and compellingly interesting.

The Germans never did anything about the book or the author, whom they could have unmasked with much greater ease and results than the literary editors are having today.

Whereas the mysterious Jan Valtin wound up under a dark curtain of suspicion as the facts of his startling "true" story were probed, there is no indication that the mysterious Pierre Andrezel, whether man or woman, has anything to hide but identity.

WORK OF HUMORIST IS EXCELLENT FOIL

Incidentally, in the same selection with "The Angelic Avengers," the "Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House," by Humorist Eric Hodgins.

This gentleman kept an unusual pledge, only two years late, to retire at the age of 40 and devote himself to the vice-presidency of his family and to his own writing. "Mr Blandings" is part of the result of this retirement from his post as vice-president of Time Inc. in charge of public relations.

Previously he had been publisher of Fortune magazine. His first assignment for Fortune was an unsigned article, "Arms and Men," an expose of international intrigue among European armament makers that was widely distributed including publication in eight foreign languages.

JOTTINGS—To anyone who has read so many mystery stories that they now wish to read about mystery stories is recommended "The Art of the Mystery Story," edited by Howard Haycraft . . . Herbert Schneider presents a parade of American thinkers in his new work, "A History of American Philosophy" . . . Throughout December, John P. Marquand's "B. F.'s Daughter" stayed on top as the most popular fiction across the United States . . . In the general classification, "Peace of Mind" by Liebman, just topped "The Egg and I" . . . Spain in the years of Philip IV and V is reported as the setting of the next work of Somerset Maugham, who dropped back on history in "Then and Now" . . . Professor Irwin Edman, of the Columbia University philosophy department, who should know better, says that the next reprint of "Moby Dick" should be subtitled "Forever Ambergris" . . . Harnett T. Kane ("New Orleans Woman") is an ambidextrous writer . . . The late Damon Runyon liked books so much he never could say "No" to a publisher. Which brought about the embarrassing position of his saying "Okay" to two publishers of one book . . . Margaret Ann Hubbard has told the story of the King of the Fairy Tales in her biography of Hans Christian Andersen, "Flight of the Swan."

Current Reviews

"Gay Dogs and Dark Horses," by Illingworth H. Kerr. J. M. Dent & Sons (Canada) Ltd., $3.

Vividly drawn scenes and characters of a hardier day in Canada's history of development combine to give this fast-moving narrative a strong appeal to all those who know something about the Prairie Northland, or would like to.

However, despite the publishers' claim that "this is a book for all ages," one must recommend it rather for adults than for younger readers. Mr. Kerr leans towards an accuracy in portrayal of human speech and behavior that makes his book convincing and amusing reading, but rather strong medicine for 'teen-agers.

Mr Kerr, who says he misspent his youth making boats, hunting ducks, trapping coyotes, mink and muskrats, has settled down as a teacher at the Vancouver Art School, but with an eye to the open road again some time in the future. With him, sketching came first, writing not until quite recently, but he shows himself as able with pen to tell a racy and pungent story with a shrewd psychological turn as he is with sketchbox to illustrate his book.

ILLINGWORTH H. KERR

"Gay Dogs and Dark Horses" brings a refreshing breath of the Prairies and a tang of the great Canadian West. It is a book happily combining a distinctive literary style with the knack of spinning a first-rate yarn, sly and merry. The characters supposedly are fictional, but one suspects that in his youth Mr Kerr met many of them in the flesh or else that they are composites.

Much is to be expected of future works by this latest recruit to the growing ranks of British Columbia's authors.—R.M.

Paschal Lamb and Other Poems, by Doris Ferne; Macmillan, $1.50.

One of the best known writers living in Victoria, Mrs. Ferne, has for many years been contributing poetry to many publications in Canada, the United States and England.

The second book of verse she has had published, this is an extremely comprehensive collection which is divided into two parts—the first a bitter denunciation of war and the second a word picture on the beauties of the forests of British Columbia.

Best work in the volume is the title poem—which deals with the permanence of love, even in the duress of war. Other poems include a biting criticism titled "On Some Canadian Verse," which in no uncertain terms attacks the smug selfishness and isolated thought of some Canadian writers.

The section devoted to an appreciation of the forests primeval sounds a little familiar in the face of the nature poetry characteristic to Canada, but some of it is still worth reading.—J. O'C.

PLANETARY DAILY GUIDE FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 5, 1947

Keywords for the Day. Tranquillity, discipline, decision.

Sunday in General—People may change their minds a lot at this time, and there are indications of rather feverish activity or excitement. Pursue restful courses of action. Stress harmony in relationships.

If January 5 is your Birthday—"Many Happy Returns." Famous persons born on this date include: Stephen Decatur, American naval hero; George Washington Carver, American negro agricultural chemist and educator; Robert Morrison, missionary.

Your Year Ahead—Much energy surrounds you, though with some, this may incline to overforcefulness and excitability. Correct thinking is important where work and health are concerned. Curb forcefulness.

PLANETARY DAILY GUIDE FOR MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1947

Keywords for the Day: Caution, Tranquillity, discipline.

Monday in General: The urge to action is very strong, but there will be some negative reactions in evidence by evening unless one is careful to avoid arousing sensitive people. Be wary in domestic affairs.

If January 6 is Your Birthday—"Many Happy Returns." Famous persons born on this date include: Carl Sandburg, poet; Charles Sumner, statesman; David Bruce, actor.

Your Year Ahead—This looks like an exciting year, one marked by much activity. Don't let desires run away with you. Observe sensible limits to avoid strain and tension. Reactions of others are important.

Flower Formation

"One of the never-ending sources of wonder to gardening folk, according to W. H. Warren, of the Victoria Horticultural Society, is the manner in which plants grow and produce their display of bloom in the Spring. One frequently hears expressions of pride and achievement at getting bloom only a few weeks after having transplanted people may be at a loss to explain why no blooms appeared the following season.

The understanding gardener knows that the Spring display is the result of good cultural conditions throughout the previous Summer when the tiny dormant buds were in the process of formation. Once the embryo flower has formed, subsequent transplanting or other conditions will do little to prevent or encourage bloom production, since the flowers are already formed in the bud, even to the number on each stem. The size and quality of the flowers, of course, are definitely affected by subsequent treatment.

Thus blooms may be produced the first year after transplanting, but not the next year because then all the plant's activities are devoted to getting established and producing vegetative growth. Flower production or the reproductive phase comes later, with maturity. This transition period varies greatly. Some trees and shrubs when disturbed take years to recover before starting to bear flowers or fruit again. Others are scarcely disturbed and flower again almost immediately.

Green Feed

Field corn may be used to advantage for green feed or for silage states J. J. Woods, Dominion Experimental Station, Saanichton. The dry soil conditions common to many farms on Vancouver Island during July, August and September create a scarcity of pasture and most dairymen find it necessary to use a substitute and corn is often found satisfactory.

When corn is grown for green feed a sound policy is to grow those varieties or hybrids that will produce the largest amount of fodder in the shortest time. Tests at the experimental station here have shown that two hybrids, Canada 645 and Canada 676, outyielded all others and so are better for this kinds. Corn used for green feed is cut every other day. It should be chopped with a silage cutter and fed to stock in the required amounts. The cut corn should not be piled deeply, as it will heat and spoil. Thicker planting than for silage will result in finer texture and smaller stocks.

When corn is grown for silage only those varieties should be grown that will reach a satisfactory stage of maturity, the dough stage, before killing frost occurs. Such maturity assures greater feeding value together with good yield and the best condition for ensilage.

The actual dates of killing frosts vary from one district to another and from one season to another, but normally October 15 should be considered as the latest date that is safe. Maturity tests at the Saanichton Station show that Canada 531 Golden Glow, Canada 606 and Canada 625 reach the desired stage from late September to early October. Canada 531 is about a week earlier than the others. If still earlier maturity is wanted then Canada 255, Canada 275 or Canada 355 should be grown, but the average yields will be lower than those obtained from the later maturing hybrids and varieties.

WISH QUICKLY GRANTED

WASHINGTON (CP). — Airline Hostess Elaine Kjos complained no one could pronounce her name and said "I wish it was Smith." A naval officer overheard and said "My name is Smith." Now they are Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith.

Mark Stevens Star Of Mystery Drama

Mark Stevens, one of Darryl F. Zanuck's top film finds of 1946, is seen in one of the year's most important roles in "The Dark Corner," the 20th Century-Fox hit opening tomorrow at the Atlas Theatre.

The brown-haired, brown-eyed Ohio-born star who first came to Hollywood in 1943, plays the romantic lead opposite glamorous Lucille Ball in the psychological mystery-drama. Also starred in the gripping film are Clifton Webb and William Bendix with Kurt Kreuger heading the featured cast.

"Dark Waters" At Rio Tomorrow

It is very hard to reconcile the sniveling, sneaky little murderer that Elisha Cook, Jr., plays in Benedict Bogeaus' picturization of The Saturday Evening Post thrill-serial "Dark Waters," with the real Elisha Cook, first citizen of Bishop, Calif. In the picture, opening tomorrow at the Rio Theatre Cook lends his special talents for the sinister in support of stars Merle Oberon, Franchot Tone and Thomas Mitchell. Others in the cast include Fay [illegible] noted negro star, and Nina McKinney.

Life of a Horse Theme of Picture

Roy Rogers' musical westerns are always favorably received as the King of the Cowboys apparently has a host of faithful fans.

Newest release from Republic is "My Pal Trigger," which ends tomorrow night at the Dominion Theatre.

The story is a novel one concerning itself with the life cycle of a horse. Roy is unjustly accused of shooting a stallion which has just run off and mated with his mare. George "Gabby" Hayes, owner of the stallion, has Roy jailed, but he gets out and leaves the state.

Fine Performance By Jose Iturbi

Jose Iturbi's family is well represented in the new M-G-M Technicolor musical hit, "Holiday in Mexico," which is now showing at the Royal Theatre.

Not only does Iturbi play a character part in the new production, as well as reveal his brilliant talent on the piano keys, but his equally talented sister, Ampara Iturbi, joins him in a piano duet in one of the film's spectacular musical sequences. On top of this Iturbi's two granddaughters were enrolled to play themselves!

Technicolor Hit Fine Musical

"Three Little Girls in Blue," the new 20th Century-Fox Technicolor musical starring June Haver, George Montgomery, Vivian Blaine, Celeste Holm, Vera-Ellen and Frank Latimore, opens tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre.

Set against the gay and nostalgic background of Atlantic City at the turn of the century, the exciting and romantic story was directed by Bruce Humberstone and produced by Mack Gordon.

Fine Program By Piano Team

The dynamic two-piano team of Vronsky and Babin, have chosen an outstanding program for their appearance at the Royal Theatre on Thursday evening on the Hilker Attractions Greater Artists Series. The printed list follows:

Andante and Variations, Opus 46	Schumann
Recitative and Aria, "Sheep May Safely Graze," Bach, arr. V. Babin
Duettino Concertante, after Mozart	Busoni
Second Suite, Opus 17	Rachmaninoff
Introduction, Valse, Romance, Tarantelle
The Piper of Polmood (Based on old Scottish folk tunes)	Babin
Danzon Cubano	Copland
Le bal Martiniquais	Milhaud
Chanson Creole, Biguine

Used full strength, good quality witch hazel is excellent as a mouth wash or gargle.

Two Torrid Tunes Enliven "Gilda"

Rita Hayworth has her first real dramatic role as "Gilda" in Columbia Pictures' romantic drama with Glenn Ford, George Macready and Joseph Calleia, which opens tomorrow at the York Theatre with a midnight showing tonight. However, she does not completely forsake the musical magic that carried her to cinema stardom.

Two hit songs were written for "Gilda," by the crack team of Allan Roberts and Doris Fisher, and Rita sings them both in her inimitable fashion. They are "Amado Mio" and "Put the Blame on Mame."

LONDON (CP) —Ven. William Marshal Selwyn, 66, archdeacon of Bath, has been named suffragan bishop of Fulham.

Glimmer and Shimmer
Hollywood

The Hollywood maxim that a star can't drop a career at any old time and pick it up again has been disproven by Ann Dvorak for the third time [illegible] acting plum in De Maupassant's "The Private Affairs of Bel Ami." Her role is Madeleine, co-starring with George Sanders and Angela Lansbury.

Starting in pictures in 1929, Ann played in "Hollywood Review" among other productions. To realize on a remarkable flair for dancing, she dropped acting to become a dance director. Returning to the screen again, Ann went on to win fame in "Scarface."

In 1932 the actress, then one of Hollywood's brightest stars, again dropped her career to marry Leslie Fenton and take a nine-month honeymoon in Europe. She returned at her own leisure and easily earned a long succession of excellent roles.

When her husband went to England to join the Royal Navy in 1936, she again ditched her career and followed.

Back again successfully, it now appears there will always be a career waiting for Ann Dvorak in Hollywood.

Angela Lansbury, also in "Private Affairs" with Ann, shows the same determination to continue acting. In fact, she braved the London blitz to study drama. A school girl at the time, she quit public school to avoid evacuation and entered a professional training school so that she would not have to go to the country. This is her first starring role.

Columbia has completed casting for the latest Dick Powell vehicle, "Assigned to Treasury," in which Signe Hasso is the feminine lead. Peter Chong will play the most important of the male roles to be enacted by Orientals and Edgar Barrier will appear as Orice, rikshe garage attendant and opium ring figure. For Powell, it is another step forward in "tough" roles.

Another of the famous Sapper series is coming to the screen in "Bulldog Drummond at Bay." The cast is relatively little known but strong in good acting ability. Leon Murdie, former Theatre Guild actor, will play the title role. Terry Kilburn, erstwhile child actor, will play his first adult role as a comic cub reporter.

The Three Stooges of comedy-short fame are back on the lot at Columbia with a two-reeler. Moe and Curly Howard and Larry Fine are the three, in case you haven't seen one of the shorts lately.

Sister Kenny, whose life story is a current movie hit, places third on the list of ten women most admired by American women. Although an Australian, Miss Kenny was "adopted because of what she has done for the children of this nation." Rosalind Russel portrayed Miss Kenny in the movie. The other nine women were Eleanor Roosevelt, Claire Boothe Luce, Helen Kellar, Kate Smith, Frances Perkins, Dorothy Thompson, Pearl Buck, Helen Hayes, and Helen Gahagan Douglas.

"Kamikaze," being produced by RKO Radio, will include sequences from nearly 1,000,000 feet of confiscated Japanese film never before seen by the public. Title of the film is only tentative.

Greatest use of snow in volume and area covered since "Lost Horizon," in 1937 was utilized by Frank Capra in "It's a Wonderful Life," recently premiered at New York's Globe Theatre. It required three weeks for the special effects department in its largest operation in history to provide for a 300-yard main street business section, a factory district, large residential area and a slums district. It simulates a small New York State town.

Basic snow covering called for 3,000 tons of shaved ice, 300 tons of gypsum, 50 tons of plaster and 6,000 gallons of chemicals for a newly-invented type of snow which replaced cornflakes previously used by all studios.

This new snow develops when chemicals are ejected under high pressure from nozzles, and can be used as ground covering giving a slushy undercoat and as falling fluffy snow.

Plans for an International Film Council were discussed by Canada's John Grierson, authority on the documentary film, on his return last week from Paris where he was a member of the British delegation at the first annual conference of the United Nations Educational, Social and Cultural Organization.

The suggestion for such an organization was made by Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association. Grierson is also rapporteur of the Commission on Mass Media, covering films, press and radio for educational purposes. His personal plans for The World Today Inc., which he heads, call for 26 short subjects during 1947 for release through United Artists.

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

Top Comedy Star Eddie Foy Steps Into Regular Program

This Week's Radio

One of the brightest names in the entertainment field, for lo, these many years steps into a regular spot on radio Thursday evening.

One of the funniest men of the stage, Eddie Foy, will replace Edward Everett Horton as comedy star on the Kraft Music Hall. In past weeks he has been making [illegible] the program.

Any follower of the great comics who remembers Eddie Foy as a child on the stage can be classed as a young old-timer. But even the oldest of old-timers don't go back beyond the early stage career of the master vaudevillian, Eddie Foy, Sr.

Young Eddie made his first appearance on the stage of Hammerstein's New York theatre at the age of four. A year later he joined four brothers and two sisters in the family act that played every state in the union.

One of Eddie's earliest memories is of the night when Diamond Jim Brady rose in his seat after an appearance of the "Seven Little Foys," including Eddie, and tossed on stage a paper bag containing seven small diamonds.

The ovation that Eddie received last year as comedy hit of "The Red Mill" was a great personal triumph for the veteran comedian. Life Magazine called him "the funniest man on Broadway." Columnist Louis Sobol wrote, "Give out a few cheers for Eddie Foy, who becomes one of the funniest men on the stage as of this show."

After the elder Foy died in 1928, Eddie was the only one in the group who chose to remain on the stage. He subsequently won starring comedy roles in hit shows, including "Smiles," "The Cat and the Fiddle," "Ziegfeld Follies" and "At Home Abroad."

The comedian played the vaudeville circuit for several years until Broadway recalled him to play in "The Red Mill." He is married and has an 11-year-old son, Eddie Foy III.

James Stewart, an Academy Award contender for his brilliant performance in Frank Capra's "It's a Wonderful Life," will appear as guest star on the Louella Parsons Show next Sunday over A.B.C.

Absent from the screen for five years while he achieved one of the greatest war records of any Hollywood personality, Stewart will tell listeners of problems he confronted in returning to an acting career. He also will discuss why he thinks Frank Capra is the greatest director in the motion picture industry.

Authority was granted last week by the Federal Communications Commission to the National Broadcasting Company for the construction and operation of a commercial television station in Hollywood.

Plans have been drawn for the erection of studios on N.B.C.'s property at Sunset and Vine where Hollywood Radio City has long been the focal centre of sound broadcasting in the film capital. The transmitter will be located on Occidental Peak in the Mt. Wilson area.

Lurene Tuttle, often called the first lady of radio, has been signed by Producer Seymour [illegible] to make her film debut in "Heaven Only Knows," which co-stars Robert Cummings and Brian Donlevy, with Jorja Curtwright playing the romantic lead.

Miss Tuttle will play a dramatic role as the mother of Gerald Perreaux, eight, who was borrowed from Hal Roach.

In radio Miss Tuttle has appeared opposite nearly every top male star of the screen while setting an all-time mark of more than 3,000 broadcasts since she came to Hollywood in 1937.

Networks know Miss Tuttle as radio's most versatile actress, her roles ranging from a portrayal of General Grant at the age of three to a part of the 132-year-old nurse who cared for George Washington.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"BE SURE YOU'RE RIGHT—THEN GO AHEAD!"

There are certain characters who impress themselves not only upon their own era, but who become legend and tradition. Such a man was David Crockett.

David or Davey Crockett, as even formal mention refers to him, was born in 1786 in Tennessee. He was, in the earliest sense of the word, a pioneer. His early means of livelihood was hunting, in connection with which he was the subject of many a [illegible] racoon he had chased up a tree, recognizing Davey Crockett, pleaded: "Don't shoot, Colonel, I'll come right down—I'm a gone coon!"

Davey Crockett served in the Creek War and the war waged by the Texans against Mexico. In the last he was one of the 140 defenders of the ill-fated Alamo—one of the six who finally surrendered, to be shot by order of the mad Mexican general, Santa Anna.

Between wars Davey Crockett entered politics. First he was elected to the Tennessee Legislature, later to Congress. In both, the unlettered backwoodsman distinguished himself for his shrewdness, native intelligence, wit and independence. He dressed according to his own preferences, regardless of unfavorable opinion, and voted according to his own judgment rather than follow the dictates of party leaders. He defied the mighty Jackson himself, in consequence of which he lost his seat in Congress, though this was later regained.

In 1834, Davey Crockett dictated or authorized his autobiography, in which he left us the now well-known maxim:

"I leave this rule for others when
I'm dead,
Be always sure you're right—then go ahead."

B.C. Men Win Awards

VANCOUVER, Jan. 4 (CP).—Awards to three British Columbia men were included in a list announced by air force headquarters in Ottawa today.

Squadron Leader P. Wilkinson, senior administration officer at Sea Island R.C.A.F. station, was awarded the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal. Flight Sergeant J. L. Goldey of Vancouver was awarded the Air Efficiency Award and Flight Lieutenant J. Plant of Port Moody, B.C., was mentioned in dispatches.

CARDIFF, Wales (CP) — Schoolboy John Dafydd Hughes, 18, was fatally injured in a Rugby match between Christ College and Llandovery College.

The bidding

West	North	East	South
1 ♠	Pass	1 N.T.	Double
2 ♦	2 ♠	Pass	Pass
Double	Pass	Pass	2 N.T.
Double	Pass	Pass	Pass

The condition of the score had great bearing on the bidding, but nevertheless South was far off base in taking out his partner's voluntary bid of two spades. North had heard West open the bidding with that North would not have bid two in the same suit without several taking tricks in that suit. The two-spade contract would have fared comparatively well.

Against two no trump West, striving only not to lose a trick on the opening lead, selected the heart ten. East put up the queen and declarer won. Now, possibly hoping West would not dare take the trick, declarer laid down the spade king, but this was a silly hope. West did take the trick; then he cashed the spade queen and led the heart nine.

East ducked this time and it would have been an excellent idea for South to do likewise, but he won with the jack. Now, forced to lead a club or a diamond, he chose the diamond king. West won and boldly laid down the club king, his idea, of course, being to establish a possible entry in his partner's hand if East had the club queen. Once more South should have held up, but he did not. He took the club ace and returned the jack. To his horror, it was East, not West, who gained the lead, and East cashed three heart tricks. The last of these squeezed South and he never took another trick.

Stomach, Kidneys, Intestines, Heart, All Affected by Nerves

By Dr. J. B. WARREN

IT'S YOUR NERVES-NOT YOUR HEART!

When an individual has a rapid heart beat, gets out of breath easily and has pain in region of heart, it is only natural for him to think he has heart disease. When examined by his physician or a heart specialist and told that his heart is normal and that his symptoms are due to his nerves, he does not always believe it.

His physician then points out how his appetite is affected, likewise his bowels by emotional disturbances, he is then more ready to believe that his heart can be also affected by emotional disturbances.

Rayner's Blocking Defeats Leafs, 2-0

N.Y. Goalie in Sensational Performance Canadiens Gain by Trimming Boston, 4-1

HOW THEY STAND

Toronto	20	7	4	101	72	44
Canadiens	19	7	3	102	61	41
Boston	10	11	8	90	83	28
Rangers	10	13	5	80	88	25
Detroit	9	17	4	83	100	22
Chicago	8	16	2	79	101	18

Last night's scores: Rangers 2, Toronto 0; Canadiens 4, Boston 1.

Next games: Tonight: Chicago at Rangers, Boston at Detroit.

TORONTO, Jan 4 (CP).—The New York Rangers improved their fourth-place standing in the National Hockey League when they blanked the leading Toronto Maple Leafs 2-0 before 12,347 fans tonight. It was the first victory for the Rangers over the Leafs in six starts this season.

The decision was probably finalized in the first period when Chuck Rayner delivered the best exhibition of puck-blocking seen on Maple Leaf Gardens' ice this season as his team-mates took a 1-0 lead. Rayner stopped 23 drives in the first period and 45 throughout the game, against 27 blocked by Turk Broda in the Toronto nets.

On their busiest playing session of the season, the Rangers should have been tired but they improved as they went along and more than held their own in the final period as they fought desperately to give Rayner a well-deserved shutout.

Although no goals were scored while either team was shorthanded, penalties came in bunches in the first two periods. At the 12-minute mark of the second period, both teams played with two men short.

SUMMARY

First Period—1 New York, Hextall (Laprade) 1:57. Penalties: Warwick (2), Leswick, Juzda, Reinikka.

Second Period—2 New York, Laprade (Hextall, Bell) 1:38. Penalties: Thomson, Meeker, Mac, Reinikka, Broda.

Third Period—Scoring: None. Penalties: Marlson.

MONTREAL, Jan 4 (CP).—A flying squad of Montreal Canadiens hammered Boston Bruins 4-1 here tonight before a crowd of 11,247 to move within three points of Toronto Maple Leafs in the National Hockey League race.

Canadiens, who have yet to meet defeat in six games against Bruins this season, outskated and outfought the third-place Boston squad. They took a 1-0 lead in the opening stanza, added two more in the second and another in the third before a goal-hungry squad of Bruins, putting on a desperate finish, finally dented the armor of Vezina Bill Durnan and spoiled his shutout effort with less than two minutes to go.

Fast and sparkling throughout, the game saw eight penalties handed out, five to the visitors, but only one had any bearing on the results. Canadiens got their opening goal with Jack Crawford in the cooler.

SUMMARY

First Period—1 Montreal, Blake (Richard, O'Connor) 18:10. Penalties: Pratt (2), Mosdell, K. Reardon, Crawford.

Second Period—2, Montreal, Mosdell (Lamoureux) 6:02; 3, Montreal, Richard (Blake, O'Connor) 16:25. Penalties: Chamberlain, Bouchard.

Third Period—4 Montreal, Reay (Harmon, Gravelle) 9:31; 5 Boston, Carveth (Cowley, Gallinger) 18:10. Penalties: Henderson, Smith.

7,900 Fans See Huskies Triumph

SEATTLE, Jan 4 (AP).—The University of Washington Huskies, deadly on their shots from all angles, crushed the University of Idaho tonight 62-41 for their second straight Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference victory over the Vandals. Washington led 28-16 at the half.

Both teams were much improved over the raggedness they showed in last night's season opener, but again the Huskies used their height to overpower the Vandals before 7,900 fans.

Again tonight, Nichols led the Washington scoring with 16 points. Quinn was Idaho's top man with 13.

Juvenile Soccer

First-half honors in the Third Division of the Juvenile Soccer League went to Oak Bay, which scored an 8-0 victory over Esquimalt yesterday. Other results follow:

Division One—Black and Whites 1, Esquimalt 6.

Division Two—Oak Bay 1, Cadets 0.

Division Four—North Ward 3, Elks 2.

First Division clubs, Esquimalt and Black and Whites, will play again today at Heywood Avenue at 2:30 p.m.

Suspend Cage Star

Local basketball officials following a meeting last week announced that Alex Watson, of Bruisers, had been suspended for the rest of the season for ungentlemanly conduct during a recent game with Clarksons. Watson was leading scorer in the senior "B" loop.

Hogan Equals Course Mark To Grab Lead

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4 (AP).—Benny Hogan took command of the $10,000 Los Angeles open at the midway point today when he tied the Riviera Country Club course record for this tournament with a score of 66 and a 36-hole total of 136, four strokes ahead of the field.

Clipping five strokes off the par 35-36—71 course, Hogan tied the tournament record set by Johnny Bulla in 1941 over the Riviera course. Nearly 5,000 fans followed him around.

The tournament favorite thus goes into tomorrow's third round of 18 holes in front of dark-horse Toney Penna, of Cincinnati, five strokes ahead of Ed (Porky) Oliver, of Wilmington, Del., and six shots to the good over the leading amateur of a star-studded field, Marvin (Bud) Ward, two-time national amateur champion.

England's leading representative Dai Rees, chalked up a 70 for 143. Rees and a Texas amateur, John Barnum, were the only players to break par today with the exception of Hogan.

Tied at 144 were Amateur Bruch McCormick, Los Angeles, former national public links champion, and Jim Ferrier, Chicago pro.

Amateur Frank Stranahan, of Toledo, who tied up with Hogan at 70 in the first round, three-putted three greens in a row, took a six on another, finished with a 75 for 145, along with George Fazio, Los Angeles, who had 74.

Colan Earns Shot At Jake LaMotta

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—A bout as a result of the Long Islander's light-heavyweight, and Jake LaMotta, ranking middleweight contender, was in the making today as a result of the Long Islander's upset win last night over John Thomas, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., negro heavyweight.

Matchmaker Nat Rogers of the 20th Century Sporting Club said he was "working on" a Colan-LaMotta bout for Madison Square Garden in March, as well as a title defence or a non-title appearance for Welterweight Champion Ray Robinson the same month.

B.C. Anglers Dispute Claim Idaho Trout Largest Caught

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 4 (AP).—This is a story about a 50-pound Rainbow trout, and lots and lots of 40-pound Rainbow trout. Take that smile off your lips, says the British Columbia Game Commission, this is a story about fish, not a fish story.

Before the B.C. Game Department came to the fore in a letter to Don C. Brooks, Salt Lake Tribune sports writer, the record of Lawrence Hamilton, of Reardon, Washington, had been undisputed. Hamilton, in 1945, lifted from Lake Pend Oreille, Idaho, a 32 1-2-pound Kamloops beauty which went down on some of the books as the world's record Rainbow.

Bosh, say the B.C. boys, those Pend Oreille trout once were eggs in Kootenay Lake up here, where 40-pounders are a common sight.

In the letter to Brooks, F. R. Butler, of the commission, said:

"Trout bigger than 40 pounds have been reported in our offices on numerous occasions with the largest reported weighing more than 50 pounds."

Butler said that in 1932 or 1933 A. G. Schroeder, then of Wenatchee, Wash., took a 52½ pound Kamloops or Rainbow trout from Jewel Lake near Greenwood, B.C. The fish was caught while Schroeder was trolling.

There is evidence that the fish existed in a report Robinson wrote December 19, 1939, which said:

"While I did not exactly see the fish, Schroeder informed me personally that the specimen was exhibited at the Sportsmen's Fair at Spokane three days after it was caught and it then weighed 46 pounds. On this account, Mr. Schroeder was awarded first prize for the largest trout caught within a radius of 200 miles of Spokane and we have on file in this office a photograph of this trout."

Butler added that at the collecting station on the "Lardeau River at the northwest end of Kootenay Lake it is not uncommon for us to strip Kamloops trout weighing up to 40 pounds."

VINCE CLARKSON

Promising young goalkeeper of Victoria Wests, who will be in the nets today when the Greenshirts and Canadian Legion resume their torrid rivalry at Macdonald Park in their first game in the second half of the Victoria and District Football League. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

Set Schoolboy Fight Championships

First city schoolboy boxing championships will be held at the Bay Street Armoury on the nights of January 31 and February 1, it was announced yesterday by Tommy Burgess, organizer for the Greater Victoria Boxing Association.

The tournament will be conducted similarly to those held annually at Duncan and Courtenay.

Eliminations will be held shortly by each of the five boxing clubs—Oak Bay, Esquimalt, James Bay, North Ward, and Victoria West, which have sprung up in the city recently.

Schoolboys, ranging in weight from 60 to 175 pounds, will be eligible to compete in the championships.

The youngsters will be performing for children who are not able to take part in active sports for proceeds are to go to the Queen Alexandra Solarium. A committee from the Junior Solarium League will be struck to handle the finances.

Burgess announces that Mayor Percy E. George has accepted the honorary presidency of the G.V.B.A. and will present the trophies on the final night of the tournament.

Sportsmen Examine Site of Clubhouse at Goldstream

—Colonist Photo

Seen in the centre of the photo inspecting the site of a permanent home for the Victoria and District Fish and Game Association are Ray Ritchie and Fred Hughes, vice-president and president of the club, respectively. The clubhouse is to be built on property leased from the city at Goldstream Park, including part of the flats. Besides the clubhouse, the sportsmen intend to construct skeet and trap ranges and a swimming pool for children. Club members will begin work on the site as soon as the weather becomes more favorable.

Send Race Horse To U.S. Via Plane

LONDON, Jan 4 (Reuters).—The first race horses to be flown from Britain to the United States left London Airport today.

The shipment, insured for $264,000, comprises Radiotherapy and Fast and Fair, entered in the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap, and Hermaco, Peaceiaw, Enimi and Lawsaire.

Peaceiaw will be taken off the plane at New York. The others are going to American owners in California.

Oak Bay, Thistles Football Victors

Saanich Thistles, who won the first half of the intermediate soccer league, and the runner-up Oak Bay eleven yesterday opened the second-half schedule with shutout wins.

Gorge Aces fell victims to the Thistles, 3-0, at Hampton Park, while Saanich Indians were no match for the Bays and took a 9-0 lacing.

But for the goaling of Roy Paul, Indians would have suffered a far worse beating. Don Robinson, Len French and Alan Thompson each scored twice for the winners while Al Denoni, Don Knappett and J. Thompson found the net once.

Oak Bay in Great Rally Win Soccer Fixture, 6-4

The hustle which has been the feature of the Oak Bay senior soccer eleven in recent games finally rewarded them with their first victory of the season when the last-place club scored six goals in 30 minutes to defeat Esquimalt 6-4 at Royal Athletic Park yesterday.

It was the first game of the second half of the senior soccer schedule and the triumph marks Oak Bay as a team to be watched during the remainder of the league play. Today, Wests and Legions meet at Macdonald Park at 2:30 p.m.

The luck that has been dogging Glen Hynd's boys and seen them able to muster only two ties in previous games prevailed during the first half of yesterday's game, Esquimalt taking a 3-0 lead.

Young, Hayward and Druce each tallied for the Dockyarders, the latter scoring on a gift when the Oak Bay netminder misjudged his shot. Oak Bay had a good share of the play but couldn't finish off their offensive thrusts.

Bays injected Windwood for Bartrum in goal and moved Popham up onto the forward line after the interval in a change which assisted in bringing about one of the most startling offensives seen here this year.

First Arnie Ferguson, playing centre-forward, scored the first of his three goals, then Barber pushed the leather across the line after McColl had hit the crossbar, and Ferguson tied it up on a neat pass from Stewart.

With their half-line of Wright, Stewart and Walker playing smart soccer, Oak Bay held almost continuous possession and Ferguson tallied again on a rush to put them ahead 4-3 halfway through the period.

Tommy Druce with his second goal tied it up again on a nice effort but Oak Bay came right back to score the winning marker when Centre-half Rookie Wright hoisted the ball from near centre and the ball plunked into the net over Goalie Foreman's head. Dave Smart beat Foreman with his team's sixth goal 15 minutes from the end.

Played on the slippery surface at Athletic Park the game produced some good soccer although goalies in particular found the terrain tough to combat.

Stanford May Get Series With Army

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 4 (AP).—Football circles heard today that the United States Military Academy (Army) will shortly announce the signing of a home and home series with a West Coast college. The name of Stanford University was mentioned as a possible opponent. Alfred R. Masters and Head Coach Marchmont Schwartz of Stanford were en route to New York to attend the national football meeting.

Stanford and Army met in Palo Alto in 1928 and in New York the following year, Stanford winning both games.

Hubble Bubble Wins Santa Susana Stake

ARCADIA, Calif., Jan. 4 (AP).—R. C. Ellsworth's Hubble Bubble burst forth in the stretch today to win the $50,000, seven-furlong Santa Susana stakes by four lengths over C. S. Howard's Maharetta before 47,000 at Santa Anita Park. L. B. Mayer's Judy-Rae was third. Winning time was 1:23 4-5.

Hubble Bubble, an outsider in the wagering rewarded her backers with a juicy pay-off of $25.40, $12.80 and $7.70. The winner, ridden by Bernie Layton, came from behind to overhaul Maharetta and Judy-Rae, which had set most of the early pace. Maharetta paid $7.00 and $4.90, Judy-Rae $3.00.

Island Cage Meeting Set for January 19

Play-off arrangements for the different divisions in the association will be made at a meeting of the Island Basketball Association to be held at the Malaspina Hotel on Sunday, January 19, at 1:30 p.m., Ivan Temple, secretary, announced.

The executive will have some arranging to do as there are 114 teams entered from the Island, 22 more than last year. Included in the teams are those from a midget league organized in Nanaimo by Bill Hawthornthwaite, which includes a hundred boys from seven to ten years old.

Hardin-Simmons Wins Bowl Match

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 4 (AP).—Rudolph (Little Doc) Mobley, national ground-gaining king, dashed 34 yards for one touchdown and skipped 17 for another today as the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys finished the football campaign undefeated and untied with a 20-0 victory over Denver University in the first annual Alamo Bowl game.

Portland, Oakland Win Hockey Tilts

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 4 (AP).—The Portland Eagles stretched their lead in the Pacific Coast Hockey League Northern Division tonight with an easy 5-2 victory over the last-place Tacoma Rockets.

Four quick Portland goals after Tacoma had opened the scoring in the second period gave the Eagles a safe margin. Both teams counted a goal apiece in the final canto.

FRESNO, Calif., Jan. 4 (AP).—The Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast Ice Hockey League scored a 4-3 victory over the Fresno Falcons here tonight.

The Oaks victory kept the Falcons from gaining uncontested fourth place in the league, as San Francisco bowed to Los Angeles.

Nanaimo Wins Hockey

NANAIMO, Jan. 4 (CP).—Holding off a determined third period offensive Nanaimo Clippers tonight turned back New Westminster Cubs, 6-5, in a Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League fixture here.

Taking a 3-0 lead in the first frame on goals by Joe Sawchuk, Clippers saw their perennial puck foes tie up the exciting fixture at 3-3 in the middle stanza.

Cubs showed briefly in front in the final frame when Nanaimo's Jack Richardson deflected Btecyk's goalward shot past Goalie Mike Rivers to give the visiting hockeyists a 4-3 edge.

GIANTS SIGN INFIELDERS

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—The New York Baseball Giants today announced the signing of a pair of infield buddies—Buddy Kerr and Buddy Blattner—to bring the total of players whose names are on the dotted line for 1947 to six.

Cagers Threaten To Leave A.A.U.

SPOKANE, Jan. 4 (AP).—Several Inland Empire town basketball teams tonight were considering plans to bolt the A.A.U. because of a ruling barring them from A.A.U. competition if they play traveling "professional" teams.

The registration board of the Inland Empire A.A.U. said the National A.A.U. had ruled that teams which played exhibition games with the Harlem Globe Trotters and other "professional" teams would lose their amateur status. The board supported the national ruling.

One town team official, who asked not to be named, said: "We will have to forget the A.A.U. and stage independent tournaments if necessary."

Hornets Lose Lead in Pro Hoop Circuit

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Jan. 4 (AP).—Vancouver's Hornets tumbled into second place in the Pacific Coast Professional Basketball League tonight as they lost a rough, hard-fought encounter with the third-spot Bellingham Firecrests, 46-41.

The defeat dropped the Canadians a full game behind Portland, which won tonight from the Yakima Ramblers 51-31.

Bellingham, trailing throughout most of the game, broke a 41-all deadlock in the last two minutes. A field goal and gift shot by Gail Bishop, ace forward, and basket by Guard Roy Wark gave the Firecrests their clinching counters.

Vancouver took a 15-8 lead in the first quarters mainly on the deadly shooting of Forward Norm Baker, who gained scoring honors for the tilt with 18 points.

Hornets led 33-26 at the close of the third period, but another Bellingham drive tied the score three times in the final quarter. During the last two minutes the Vancouver offense was bogged by numerous fouls. The Hornets had 17 penalties called on them throughout the game, 13 coming in the second half. Bellingham committed only two fouls in the entire tussle. Bishop paced the Firecrests with 16 points.

THE LINEUPS

Bellingham—Smith, 8; Bishop, 16; Patterson, 12; Gallney, 6; Wark, 6; Stitt, 3; Van Sinderen.

Vancouver—Baker, 18; Andrews, 10; Chapman, 4; Ceden, 6; Nichol; Sykes, Lowe, Clarkson.

Cancel Mat Card

Promoter Rocky Brooks was dealt a severe blow last night when he was forced to cancel his wrestling card at the Bay Street Armoury at the last moment.

A heavy fog in Seattle grounded all planes and made it impossible for three of the principals to appear. Babe Smolinski, Cliff Thieda and Ken Kenneth arrived by boat but Mildred Burke, Clara Young and Chief Little Wolf were stranded in Seattle.

Brooks hopes to present another mat program in the near future and has been advised that participants in future will confine themselves to the slower but surer water route.

Referee Improved

FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 4 (AP).—Referee Harry Ornest, of the United States Hockey League, was scheduled to be released from hospital here today after a speedy recovery from an injury sustained in a hockey game Thursday night.

Ornest was injured when struck from behind by a spectator.

An attending physician said an examination today showed a slight concussion had almost cleared and Ornest's injury was not serious.

U. of W. "B" Cagers To Meet Dominoes

Huskies' Second String Five to Play Here Saturday—Boast Powerful Line-Up

Exhibition inter-city hoop competition will return after a respite with Victoria Dominoes slated to play the University of Washington "B" cage five at Victoria High School next Saturday.

With a surplus of cage talent this year, the Huskies were able to form a "B" team as well as the Varsity five. The former is rated as good as Varsity squads of other years and has a record of a victory over Matheny-Bacon and overwhelming triumphs over Seattle College Chieftains and Seattle Pacific College.

The team is coached by Art McLarney, who is being groomed to replace famed Husky Coach Hec Edmundson and who is a former All-American hoop star. He is well known as a player here.

Champs Win Easily

Dominoes romped through to a 51-32 triumph over Army, Navy and Air Force Vets in a senior "A" basketball game at Victoria High School last night to increase their league lead.

Although the third-place Vets looked as though they were going places in the initial stages of the game Dominoes experience enabled them to hold off the threat and coast to victory. Teams played a fast, clean game.

Dominoes led 25-16 at the half and with Rookie Wright sharing four baskets and Busher Jackson three, mainly of the setup variety, stretched their lead to a handsome margin by the third-period interval to salt the game away.

Jackson led scorers with 13 points, while Vets points were evenly divided among four players.

In a junior boys' contest Canadian Legion scored an upset by defeating the K.V. quintette, 32-29. Brentwood defaulted an intermediate "B" boys' game to K.V.'s.

K.V.'s—Firth 1, Hudson, Caltao 6, Stewart 7, Naylar 4, Rabb, Rawe 8, McIntosh 4. Total 29.

Canadian Legion—Geisser 13, Mar 10, Parker 9, Penn, Hay, Green. Total 32.

Vets—Booth 8, Clarkson 8, Creed 6, Long 6, Javer, Harling. Total 32.

Dominoes—Chapman 6, Wright 10, Bryant 6, Lee 10, Clarke, Jackson 13, Mason 4, Taylor. Total 51.

Games on Monday at Victoria High School pit Comets, rather than Eaglettes, against H.B.C. girls at 7 p.m. Victoria College against Mooneys in a Senior "C" encounter starting at 8 p.m., while Chinese Students will battle Brentwood Aces in the Senior "B" feature at 9 p.m.

Hockey Scores

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4 (AP).—Two third-period goals gave the Los Angeles Monarchs a 4-2 victory tonight over the San Francisco Shamrocks in a fast Pacific Coast League hockey match.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4 (AP).—Centre Jimmy Fleming started the Los Angeles Ramblers' scoring and then pounded home the winning goal, too, to pace the Western International Hockey League leaders to a 4-3 victory tonight over the Kimberley, B.C., Dynamiters.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 4 (AP).—Wingman Eric Prentice's "sudden death" shot at one minute, 14 seconds, of the first overtime period gave the Hollywood Wolves a 2-1 win tonight over the Seattle Ironmen in a Pacific Coast Ice Hockey League game. A crowd of 5,200 saw the first overtime contest of the season here.

Kerries to Play Here on Saturday

After a lengthy lull following the finish of the first half and the holiday season, Pacific Coast League soccer will swing back to regular play here next Saturday when Victoria United and Kerrisdale clash in a contest which will decide the temporary league leader.

United opened the second half by downing St. Saviours, 7-4, and Kerries also downed the Tigers in their first second-half fixture.

Yanofsky Third

HASTINGS, Sussex, Eng., Jan. 4 (Reuters).—C. H. Alexander, of Britain, today increased his lead in the premier section of the international chess congress here by defeating L. Prins, of Holland, in a sixth-round match.

Dr. Xavier Tartakower, of Poland, winner of last year's tournament, is second, and Abe Yanofsky, of Winnipeg, is third in the nine-round tournament.

Alexander has 5½ points, one more than Dr. Tartakower. Yanofsky, Canadian co-champion, has 3½ points.

In today's play, Yanofsky beat M. Raizman, of France, in an adjourned game. Yanofsky now has two victories and three draws.

The Victoria and District Fish and Game Association will hold a meeting at the Boilermakers' Hall on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Terrific Interest Shown By English Soccer Fans

LONDON, Jan. 4 (CP).—Wolverhampton Wanderers' powerful drive for their first English Football League championship rolled on today when they swept Blackpool, 3-1, before 45,000 supporters in one of the schedule's feature games.

The Wolves showed championship form as they overcame a 1-0 first-half deficit to score their three goals in 14 minutes of the second half. The victory gave them 37 points, four more than second-place Preston North End which drubbed Grimsby Town, seriously threatened with relegation to the Second Division, 3-0.

Games in the four divisions of the English League drew a total of nearly 1,000,000 fans—approximately one for every 40 persons in the country.

Manchester City, unbeaten in its last 10 games, continued its winning stride with a close 1-0 victory over Chesterfield to go into a three-point lead for Second Division honors. Burnley went into the second slot with a similar score over Birmingham, in the runner-up position until today's games.

Queen's Park Rangers checked Walsall's six-game unbeaten streak with a 1-0 shutout in the Third Division Southern Section. The victory cut Cardiff City's league lead to two points. Cardiff, away from home, was held to a 1-1 draw by Notts County.

Major upsets occurred in the Northern Section. Tranmere Rovers, in 20th position, defeated the second-place Chester, 3-2. Darlington, lost in the shuffle, whipped the third-place Rotherham United, 4-3, and the league-leading Doncaster Rovers were held to a scoreless tie by New Brighton, also well down in the standings.

Also in the surprises division was Glasgow Rangers' 1-0 loss to St. Mirren in the Scottish League's "A" Division. The second-place Hibernians were held to a 1-1 draw by Morton while Partick Thistle drubbed the third-place Aberdeen, 4-0.

Dundee, leader in Division "B," triumphed 6-2 over Cowdenbeath and Airdrieonians, in second spot, stayed in line with a 3-1 victory over Arbroath.

Aussies in Good Position To Win Third Test Match

MELBOURNE, Jan. 4 (CP).—The Australian team concluded the fourth day's play in the third test cricket match with England today by piling up their second innings score to 293 for four wickets. More than 72,000 persons looked on.

That gave the Dominion's team a 307-run lead over the visiting English team, which was all out for 351 in the first innings. The Aussies scored 365 in their own first innings.

The English team has two days in which to attempt to end the Aussie innings and go to bat themselves in an effort to overtake the wide Dominion lead.

Arthur Morris stayed throughout the day and ran up a score of 132 not out. Norman Yardley dismissed Don Bradman, for the second time in this match, at 159. Playing forward he cocked up a simple return catch. Bradman made 49 out of 81 in an hour and 40 minutes and hit four fours.

Hassett was not happy against the English bowling and at 177 was bowled by Wright for nine.

In the morning play, 79 runs were added in 90 minutes. The only batter to fall to the English attack was Sid Barnes, high-scoring New South Wales hitter.

Yardley broke up what looked like a threatening opening partnership. Relieving Bill Edrich at 68, he got Barnes brilliantly caught on his left side at the wicket with a fourth ball.

Today's attendance boosted to 263,000 the turnout of the last four days.

SPORTS SCENE, 1946

Assault's "Triple" Made Turf Headlines

HORSE RACING

By WALTER L. JOHNS

It was "plain murder" what Assault did to other three-year-olds in the top events on the racing calendar this year.

The club-footed speedster from Texas, voted "horse of the year" in a recent poll, began his turf campaign by scooting to victory in the Kentucky Derby and then grabbing the "triple," winning the Preakness and the Belmont.

Son of Bold Venture, himself a Derby winner, the chestnut beauty from the King ranch set a money-winning record of $424,195 for one season of racing before he finished the year.

STYMIE WINS PLENTY

While Assault's story is the No. 1 turf event of the year, two other horses came in for their share of racing glory as they closed in on Whirlaway's all-time money-winning record of $516,285.

The two are Armed, Calumet Farm handicap star, and Stymie, one of those turf bargains.

Armed won 11 of 18 races, including the Widener Handicap, and finished the year a distinct threat to Whirly's money mark.

Stymie, trained by Hirsch Jacobs, had a sensational year and climbed to within some $40,000 of Whirly's half-million-dollar earnings.

Education, owned by Mrs. P. W. Hooper, was the two-year-old champion among the colts, winning several of the big races on Chicago tracks. First Flight, winner of the Belmont Futurity, was the leader among the two-year-old fillies.

BIG WINNERS

In the other big races on the track calendar, Knockdown, Maine Chance Farm entry, walked off with the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby; War Knight, a rank outsider racing in the mutual field, captured the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap; The Dude, another long-shot, surprised in the Arlington Classic. Eternal Reward, a [illegible] shot, [illegible] to win the American Derby, and Triplicate, owned by Fred Astaire, came home first in the $100,000 Hollywood Gold Cup.

Most spectacular finish was the photo finish in the Santa Anita Handicap. War Knight, First Fiddle and Snow Boots buzzed across the finish line in a blanket finish. The photo gave the nod to War Knight.

Most amazing long-shot win was the victory of Eternal Reward in the Washington Park Classic. The horse paid off at odds of 102 to 1, topping all previous long-shot marks in big stakes races.

One of the most tragic accidents on the turf came in January when the famous "Iceman," Georgie Woolf, was thrown from the horse Please Me, during the running of a race at Santa Anita.

Woolf died from his injuries, closing the book on a dramatic career in the sport of kings.

Another riding accident came later in the year when Nick Wall, another top-flight jockey, was thrown from his mount at Bay Meadows track. Wall, however, has recovered and recently left the hospital.

BRADLEY DIES

The Kentucky sportsman, Col. E. R. Bradley, owner of four Kentucky Derby winners, died at Lexington after a long illness to deprive the racing sport of one of its most colorful characters.

In February several steeplechase jockeys were accused of attempting to throw a race at the Pimlico race track, and an investigation was held.

Bought for $66,000 as a yearling, Pericles, owned by William Helis, the Greek millionaire, finally made his racing bow—as a four-year-old—and won his first start at Jamaica.

Starting a string of hard-luck for Mrs. Elizabeth Arden, the cosmetics queen who owns the Maine Chance Farm, a fire broke out at Arlington Park race track and destroyed 22 horses, including several of her own runners. Loss was estimated at $500,000.

DERBY WINNER, TOO

Use of airplanes in transporting horses from track to track made headlines. Historian, a winner at Chicago one week, was flown to the West Coast for a race there the next Saturday.

Burgoo King, Kentucky Derby winner in 1932, died at Columbus, Ohio. Burgoo King was one of Bradley's winners.

Over in England, long-shot upsets continued to hold sway as a 50 to 1 shot, Airborne, copped the English Derby at Epsom Downs.

Charley Kurtsinger, another top-ranking jockey and twice a winning rider in the Derby, died at the age of 39 in Louisville. Kurtsinger brought home Twenty Grand and War Admiral in the Churchill Downs classic.

As usual, the race tracks did a big business, although the huge crowds and betting in some sections were off from the previous year.

The year 1946 also saw the opening of the new Atlantic City track in the East.

SIGNS FOR TITLE BOUT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4 (AP).—Manuel Ortiz, world bantamweight champion, today signed to defend his title against Kui Kon Young, of Honolulu, in a 15-round bout at Olympic Auditorium here March 11. He defeated Young in an overweight match in Honolulu last year.

Takes Long Walk

FREEMANTLE, West Australia, Jan. 4 (CP).—George Lockwood, 46, is trying to set a new 2,000-mile walking record from Freemantle to Sydney.

He hopes to cover the distance in 140 days and better the previous record held by W. R. Peat, of Birmingham, England, who required 151 days.

Lockwood was in a relay team which walked the 400 miles between Melbourne, Victoria, and Adelaide in 52 1-2 hours in 1936.

TOAST and TEA

By J. V. McAREE

HERE is a picture of Thomas Wolfe, author of "Look Homeward, Angel," from L. Ruth Middlebrook, an old friend, in The American Mercury: "All the time he was eating he would talk so hard and so fast that he never remembered whether it was a second or a seventh helping he had had. Suddenly, the platter empty, he would rise like a bewildered child, embarrassed that the table had been swept clean. He would stretch the full six feet, six inches length of himself—like Adam taking his first mortal breath—and struggle with his shirt-tail, which by this time hung like an abbreviated apron around his middle. His vest rose three inches above his trousers, and his coat sleeves struggled to reach his wrists. His clothes never made connection Summer or Winter, somehow he never managed to find store clothes long enough for him, and I doubt that he would have had a tailor even if he could have afforded one."

5 IN MEMORIAM

GALLAWAY—Mrs. Eleanor Galloway passed away January 6, 1946.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of one that thinks of you.

—Inserted by her loving daughter, Eleanor Elane.

PONHOWN—In proud and loving memory of a wonderful son and brother, Sqdn. Ldr. A. J. (Tony) Ponhown, D.F.C., R.A.F., who lost his life in air operations over the Atlantic, January 6, 1944.

The fire of your spirit cannot die,
The value of your gift can never fade,
For you, who scorned the tyrant, too have made
Your mark on us, who watched you calmly fly
To blast all evil from the earth and sky.

R. P., M. P. and W. P.

21 PERSONAL

A FEW THINGS . . . THIS YEAR I'D like to do better and the first is to improve this daily letter. Which as U know is simply designed to try and get U to keep us in mind. And at the same time, try and infuse, [illegible] humor that might amuse. We don't hope for much from our peculiar style, just we trust, the occasional smile. The second thing we'd like to do is try and be more tolerant, as one and you. And from criticism try and refrain, never saying "that guy gives me a pain." But endeavor to see all I meet at social affairs or on the street, as a sort of friendly brother, and do my part of "Love One Another." Selfishness too I'd like to rout, is what most discord's all about. And to be more humble I'd like to try and much more considerate of the other guy. To be grateful too for blessings implanted, and NOT to just take all things for granted. I'd also like to seldom feel blue, and I WON'T if more daily good I do. And another thing my mind is clear, I'd like to conquer, resentment and fear. I doubt if I'll get far on this road to heaven, but I'd sure like to try harder . . . in 1947.
MAKE YOURS . . . turquoise and [illegible] in rich velour . . . We just rec'd ten gorgeous Chesterfield sets in lineal tapestry . . . [illegible] . . . all fluted family affairs . . . styled and built to last.
HUMBER BROTHERS
furniture
in the heavy warehouse, opp. courthouse . . . Bastion St.
AND WE HAVE A CARLOAD OF COMFORT in bedroom suites . . . 16 suites . . . to this carload of comfort . . . 16 suites . . . Of the 3 one choose the 4-tone blonde or the 3-tone walnut . . . [illegible] of bedroom joy featuring PLATE mirrors . . . drop center vanities . . . and we can ship out all over town in the factory crates . . . so remember 16 suites at the WAREHOUSE price of only $125.00 . . . because they're "FROM WAREHOUSE TO YOUR HOUSE."

BUSHWOOD, 12-IN. LENGTHS, HEAVY bark. B 1667.

CHEAP LUMBER

CULL LUMBER AT LESS THAN THE price of wood. This lumber cannot be sold commercially because of being off-size, too much bark, splits, checks, or pitch streaks. Six hundreds of loads are being sold and the pieces picked out to repair barns, sidewalks, fences and garden stakes. Even if all this lumber was cut into wood, it would be cheap inside wood and a load would make about 1½ cords. Especially handy for people who live outside of town and find it hard to get good wood. This lumber is to 1, 2, 3 and 6-inch boards and planks and lumber up to 20 feet long. [illegible]

HOME BUILDERS' BARGAINS

SORRY WE CANNOT SPLASH ANY BIG full-price ads in building materials—the house styles don't change often enough and goods are still scarce. However we can offer many long hours of Winter enjoyment in planning that future home of yours and here it is.

BRITISH COLUMBIA HOMES—Compiled in Vancouver to suit British Columbia conditions. Contains over 30 plans of bungalows and semis, many approved and being built under N.H.A. specifications. Homes of all styles, conventional, rambling, ranch type and modern flat-roofed. Floor plans from 600 to 1,300 sq. ft. Price $1.25, postpaid anywhere.

UNIVERSAL HOMES — The popular plan book, handled in this area. 52 smart floor plans of modern bungalows. Technicolor plates of completed buildings, cuts showing interior fixture arrangement. Price $1.00 postpaid anywhere.

STYLE TRENDS—Thirty-two plans of assorted bungalows and cottages, all in attractive colors and blocked in floor plans. Price postpaid anywhere, 75c.

SUCCESSFUL FARM BUILDINGS — The ideal book for our farmer friends to browse through. Plans of barns, poultry houses, brooders, hog sheds and dozens of cuts showing constructions of portable buildings, feed racks, etc. Price postpaid, $1.00.

FREE . . . FREE . . . FREE

With every purchase of a plan book we are giving away a copy of "HOW TO PLAN THE HOME YOU WANT," a 16-page booklet describing the things to include in your home planning. To the first timer an invaluable help to avoid many mistakes made by others. Shows numerous illustrations of home planning helps. Included free with any plan book purchase but can be bought separately for 25c, postpaid.

MOUNTAIN RESORT AND TEAROOM

One of the finest properties of its kind, situated close to Victoria on busy main highway. With a marine and mountain view second to none. Property comprises over 150 acres, part of which is highway frontage running right to beach, with absolutely gorgeous waterfrontage. At the present time, there is a delightful tea room, finished in native woods. A well-stocked shop with attached living quarters of four cheery rooms. There are also gas pumps and two pretty cottages. Plenty of room for expansion here and one of the best resort buys. On reasonable terms. Full price $26,500

TOURIST CAMPSITE AND LAKEFRONTAGE

This property is right on the busy Island Highway and offers unheard-of possibilities to the man who can see opportunity knocking on his door. This valuable site of over ten acres will give someone with foresight the chance to develop it into the finest auto court on the island, or would make an ideal lakefront amusement centre or dance hall. At present comprises modern five-room cedar shake bungalow with furnace, double garage, plus two cottages, each having two rooms and bathroom, all copper piped. See us now for further particulars. ONLY $11,600

CITY CENTRE 3-STORY BRICK

Building with stores and offices on first and second floors. Third floor offers plenty of space for additional offices. Near-new roof, newly plumbed and wired throughout. Hence, there should be many years of low-expense operation. An opportunity of this kind for Victoria centre property seldom presents itself, especially when it is priced so ridiculously low. SNAP $18,000

STUCCO BUSINESS BLOCK OAK BAY WAY

Start the New Year right and read this ad through. A brand new spick 'n' span block of five stucco stores with everything modern and up-to-the-minute. Roofs are tar and gravel with heavy concrete foundations. Grosses over $3,000 yearly. If you desire a safe and sound investment offering substantial returns with little overhead for years to come, inspect this property. Owner will accept house as part payment. Full price on terms only $17,000

THIS EXCEPTIONALLY BEAUTIFUL HOME of more than 18 rooms would be very suitable for any one of the above mentioned.

When originally built it cost close to $32,000 and could not be duplicated today for $50,000. The price is $25,000, which includes the furniture, some of which are very valuable antique pieces.

The main floor consists of a large drawing-room, living-room, tea room, dining-room, breakfast-room, kitchen, maids' room and conservatory.

The upstairs consists of six large bedrooms and a sleeping porch. All bedrooms, but one, have their own private three-piece bathroom.

The partly completed attic has enough space for three or four extra rooms, and is suitable for staff quarters.

The basement has a very large ballroom about 45 by 30, and a billiard room (with table) about 30 by 20, with open fireplace. Automatic oil furnace with hot-water radiation in all rooms. There are storage rooms, fruit rooms, bulb rooms, etc.

The grounds are beautiful with over an acre of lawns and fruit trees, offering almost complete seclusion. Double garage. Altogether it is really a splendid home, and should be seen to be fully appreciated.

Flour Production Sets New Record

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP).—A further sharp advance was recorded in the production of wheat flour in November when the output reached 2,519,556 barrels—the heaviest in Canadian milling history, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported.

The month's output compared with 2,285,317 barrels a year ago. Flour production for the four months ended November amounted to 9,237,005 barrels, against 8,570,196 in 1945-46.

Wheat milled into flour during the month amounted to 11,239,067 bushels, compared with 10,214,111 in the same month last year, bringing the total for the four months ended November to 41,506,918 bushels, compared with 38,214,452 in the preceding crop year.

The following quantities of coarse grains also were milled in November (totals for the same month last year being in brackets): oats, 2,700,088 (2,050,503) bushels; corn, 300,022 (87,432); barley, 1,010,140 (758,980); buckwheat, 15,790 (14,840); mixed grain, 2,453,840 (2,681,825).

Stocks of Butter Lower in Canada

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP).—Stocks of creamery butter in nine principal Canadian cities at January 1 totaled 28,504,249 pounds, a seasonal decline of 8,830,806 pounds from December 1, but an increase of 9,067,083 over the stocks held a year ago, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

Cheese stocks totaled 16,230,236 pounds, against 19,050,107 at December 1, and 19,306,428 at January 1 last year, while stocks of fresh eggs were 1,220,511 dozen, compared with 806,018 at December 1. Supplies of frozen eggs amounted to 4,306,137 pounds, against 5,041,448 at December 1.

Finance—Commerce—Markets

Prices of Cattle Slightly Higher

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP) — Arrivals of cattle at central markets continued light this week due to the holidays and in some cases adverse weather conditions, the Agriculture Department reported in its weekly livestock review. Prices were strong to 25c higher in the East and as much as 75c higher at Winnipeg. Calves and lambs were firm. Hogs were higher in the East, but unchanged in the West.

At Toronto weighty steers sold to a top of $14.35 and butcher steers between $11 and $13. Butcher cows were up to $11, and bulls $11 to an odd $11.50. At Montreal good quality steers were $12.50, $13.50 and $14 and good cows, $10 and $11.

At Winnipeg odd choice steers topped at $14 and good slaughter kinds were in demand at $13 and $13.75. At Calgary good to choice butcher steers were $13.25 and $13, while Edmonton had a few top steers at $13, but most sales $13.75 down. Prince Albert sold good steers around an average of $11.60. Moose Jaw [illegible] Regina, $13.

Dairy cattle exports to the United States were reduced due to the holiday season to 544 head. The year's total stands at 69,536, compared with 45,809 for 1945.

Toronto paid $16 to $17 for best veals; Montreal, $16; Winnipeg, $14 to $16. Calgary and Edmonton, $11.50 to $13.50; Moose Jaw, $13 and Saskatoon, $10 to $13.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP)—Stocks today ended a slightly irregular week with most market leaders achieving modest advances while many pivotals continued to doze in the losing column.

In the final session, as from Monday on, a little reinvestment purchasing propped individual issues [illegible] hope that a January rally would eventuate. It was recalled that in the initial 1946 month the list hit a series of 15-year highs.

Advances of fractions to a point or so predominated at the close. Transfers of 300,000 shares compared with 570,000 a week ago, and were the smallest since October 26. For the five sessions the aggregate was 5,159,190 shares, against 5,116,842 in the preceding short week.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .1 of a point at 66, but for the week showed a net loss of .2. It was the narrowest market since November 16, only 886 issues appearing. Of these, 354 rose, 166 fell and 166 were unchanged.

Foreign Trade At High Point

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP).—A year-end statement on foreign trade issued by the Canadian Exporters' Association said Canada's foreign trade in 1946 was at a higher point than any peacetime period in the country's history, but warned that this volume, $2,000,000,000 in exports, was abnormal.

"There is an unbalanced trading position between Canada and the United States," the report continued, [illegible] Canada is almost three times that of the prewar period.

"We know what is needed, and the United States by virtue of its great economic strength and its heavy stake in world stability must take the lead. Canada has a vital interest in American leadership in all its phases.

"In 1947 the resilience of Canadian industry will have to turn out products that will find a readier and more diffused export market."

Nanaimo Great War Veteran Regains Eyesight in Hospital

NANAIMO, Jan. 4. — Thomas Prentice Wicks, 76, a veteran of the Great War, and who has been blind for the past ten years, arrived home from Shaughnessy Hospital today with the second cataract removed from his eyes in two months.

He was full of praise for the Shaughnessy Military Hospital staff's kindness and for the skill of Dr. J. Menneus, who performed both operations which restored his sight.

Mr. Wicks, a rancher one and one-half miles north of Nanaimo, is now looking forward to converting his newly acquired virgin land known as the Westwood property into a farm home.

He is a member of the Victoria Historical Society, and many of his stories of early days of British Columbia are recorded in Vancouver, Provincial and Dominion archives.

He lived at Vancouver and Seattle before those cities were mapped out.

Skaters Enjoy Island Lakes

DUNCAN, Jan. 4—Many enjoyed ice skating on Somenos Lake, Wake's Lake and ponds near Fairbridge Farm School during the week. Stocks of hockey sticks, pucks and skates were exhausted in stores on Tuesday.

Report from Shawnigan Lake described skating at Strathcona Bay, and Copley Lakes on the old Silver Mine trail.

Nanaimo Rainfall Greater in 1946

NANAIMO, Jan. 4—Precipitation at Nanaimo totaled 38.28 inches last year, compared with the average of 36.40 inches, according to Lamont Ross, official weather observer.

Sunshine totaled 1,808 hours, against the average of 1,869 hours.

Lowest temperature was recorded on December 17, when the mercury fell to 22 degrees. Hottest day was July 20, with a temperature of 89 degrees.

December rainfall totaled 8.01 inches. Maximum temperature that month was 53 degrees, recorded on December 10. Sunshine totaled 33 hours and 24 minutes.

Sidney to Select Water Officials

SIDNEY, Jan. 4—Annual meeting of Sidney Water District Board will be held early next month. Hugh J McIntyre, chairman, and W Oliver, consulting engineer, announced they would not seek re-election. Other board members are Everett Goddard, assessor; F. F. Forneri, collector, and A Gardner, engineer. William Peddie and J. A Kirkpatrick have been asked to stand for election to the board.

Weather Forecasts

East Coast of Vancouver Island—Overcast with snow flurries. Light winds with little change in temperature.

West Coast of Vancouver Island—Overcast with intermittent rain. Light winds with little change in temperature.

Port Alberni Craft Burns

PORT ALBERNI, Jan 4—The fishing schooner Royal No. 1, operated by Robert Wylie, of Nelson Bros.' Fisheries, was badly burned at the city dock tonight. The entire cabin structure, decks and parts of the interior were gutted by the fire. Firemen handicapped by the location of the boat performed excellent work to save the hull and engine.

No estimate was made of the damage but the vessel was said to carry $36,000 insurance.

Buried at Cobble Hill

COBBLE HILL, Jan. 4—Rev. E. M. Willis officiated at funeral services here on Friday for the late John Charles Rathbone, 57, who passed away suddenly on Monday at his Mill Bay home. He was born at Sheffield, England, and served in the Great War and World War. For 20 years he was postmaster at Shawnigan Lake.

Port Alberni Asks More Post Boxes

PORT ALBERNI, Jan. 4—Postmaster Leslie E. Hammer has requested postal authorities to investigate the space situation at the local post office. There are 1,200 post office boxes in use, and no room available to add more.

Farmers to Meet

COURTENAY, Jan 4.—D. S. Gibbons, district agriculturist, has made arrangements with the Agricultural Association for a meeting in Agricultural Hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday. W. H. Pope will speak on poultry, and Dr. F. N. Wood will discuss turkey diseases.

OPENS SHOP AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Jan. 4—Wilfred Aldred, a resident of Nanaimo for 11 years, and a veteran of four years' service in the Canadian Army, has opened a sign-painting shop on Fitzwilliam Street. Mr. Aldred is well known as a basketball and lacrosse player.

Shortage of Butter Felt at Courtenay

COURTENAY, Jan. 4 — Butter production fell to 4,500 pounds in November, and will not improve until cows freshen in the Spring, according to the Comox Creamery Association. There is no butter in storage at the creamery and supplies for the district are brought in from the Fraser Valley and Alberta. Officials believe the only way to remedy the shortage would be to equalize the price of whole milk and butter by allowing an increase in the price of butter.

Continents Apart Mother Talks To Son Over Amateur Radio

By JOHN SMALLER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

A Toronto mother during the Christmas season had the unique experience of exchanging greetings with her seaman son in Capetown, South Africa. The exchange was not by way of Christmas card, telegraph or even telephone.

She sat before a "home-made" radio transmitting and receiving set [illegible] residential street and talked for more than half an hour to her son thousands of miles away. They used facilities provided by friends, amateur radio operators, in Toronto and in Capetown.

Radio as the amateur's hobby—apart and distinct from the act of settling down comfortably to tune in on a commercial radio station for a carefully prepared and rehearsed program—is one of the most interesting aspects of the general field, yet relatively unknown to the uninitiated.

How many common or garden type radio fans know that there are about 4,000 Canadians who can conduct lengthy conversations with any of almost 100,000 friends in almost any part of the world at almost any time of day or night? Again, how many realize that these special types of radio fans formed the nucleus of the radio staffs both in the armed forces and in the radar and radio manufacturing war plants during the World War?

It is a hobby, too, that receives benevolent assistance, protection and encouragement from governments and is regulated by international agreements. The radio "hams"—as they are known to each other—have proved of inestimable value in emergency conditions. The recent rescue of airmen who crashed at Mont Joli, Que., was directed by radio amateurs in the vicinity.

Extreme weather conditions that [illegible] munication systems find the "ham" on the job of maintaining contact between isolated centres and the rest of the world.

From "hams" in Canada, the Dominion Department of Transport calls for British citizenship, a code test and fair knowledge of the technical side of radio. Once satisfied, the department issues an amateur licence which enables the holder to operate a transmitting and receiving set on certain frequency bands, set aside by international agreement for use by amateurs.

Amateur radio operators, like commercial radio stations, have their call letters, and Canada's "hams" are all under the VE initials. For security reasons all amateurs were taken off the air during the war and their sets were dismantled. Back in operation since November 8, 1945, they have increased until today an estimated 4,000 to 4,500 are licensed in Canada.

The amateur radio operator, according to a survey made recently in the United States, is the corner grocer, the doctor, high school student or professional radio technician.

Since the "ham" in time becomes a highly skilled technician, quite often he will turn to full-time radio activity and thus many of the personnel of large commercial radio stations can chart their paths into the profession along the route of the amateur radio hobbyist.

ANOTHER BLACK ROBBER

"What is it now?" asked Johnny of Skimmer

No sooner had Mr. Blacksnake been driven away from the Old Orchard than all the birds set up such a rejoicing that you might have thought they and not Farmer Brown's boy had saved the eggs of Mr. and Mrs. Skimmer. Listening to them Johnny Chuck just had to smile to himself. As soon as he felt it was quite safe to do so Johnny Chuck came out of his hole. He was eager to tell Skimmer the Tree Swallow how glad he was that Mr. Blacksnake had been driven away before he could get Skimmer's eggs.

As he poked his head out of his doorway Johnny became aware that something was still wrong in the Old Orchard. Into the glad chorus there broke a note of distress and sorrow. He instantly recognized the voices of Welcome and Mrs. Robin. No others among his feathered neighbors can so express worry and sorrow as can the Robins. Johnny was just in time to see all the birds hurrying over to where the Robins had built their home. There were cries of indignation and anger and he caught the words "Robber! Thief! Wretch!" It appeared that there was just as much excitement over there as there had been when Mr. Blacksnake had been discovered trying to rob Skimmer. It couldn't be Mr. Blacksnake again because Farmer Brown's boy had chased him in quite another direction.

"What is it now?" asked Johnny of Skimmer, who was still excitedly discussing with Mrs. Skimmer their recent fright.

"I don't know, but I'm going to find out," replied Skimmer and darted away.

Johnny Chuck waited patiently. The excitement among the birds seemed to increase, and the chattering and angry cries grew louder. Only the voices of Welcome and Mrs. Robin were not angry. They were mournful as if the Robins were heartbroken. Presently Skimmer returned to tell Mrs. Skimmer the news.

"The Robins have lost their eggs," he cried excitedly. "All four have been broken and eaten. Mrs. Robin left them to come over here to help drive away Mr. Blacksnake and while he was here someone ate those eggs. Nobody knows who it could have been because all the birds of Old Orchard were over here at that time. It may have been Chatterer the Red Squirrel or Sammy Jay or Blacky the Crow. Whoever it was took the chance when there was no one to see him sneak over there and rob that nest."

Just then from over toward the Green Forest sounded a mocking "Caw, caw, caw!" Instantly the noise in the Old Orchard ceased for a minute, then it broke out afresh. Now there wasn't a doubt in anyone's mind. Blacky the Crow was the robber! Such dreadful as those birds promised to do to Blacky if they ever caught him in the Old Orchard.

Next story: More Trouble.

South African News Briefs

CAPETOWN, Jan. 4 (CP)—Twenty-five per cent interest in the African Consolidated Theatres, Ltd., has been acquired by the Arthur J. Rank film organization of the United Kingdom, it was announced here recently. The Rank organization now will distribute films on a percentage basis through the chain cinemas owned by Consolidated.

The deal also involves an interest in the company's new film studios to be constructed at Parkmore, Johannesburg. The studios will undertake an ambitious program of film production and it is expected that with the collaboration of the Rank organization, the company's film program will be greatly enlarged.

The South African Air Force postwar pupil scheme will begin in April, it was reported here recently. Six main centres will be employed in training pupils on a ratio consistent with the ten multi-engined and five single-engined squadrons constituting the air force. Under the scheme each pupil will be given 260 hours of flying.

The air force shortly will be increased to five times its prewar strength by the addition of 136 Spitfires which will begin arriving here in February, officials announced. About 80 are to be used to re-equip South African squadrons now flying Harvards and the remainder will be kept for replacements and spares.

To increase the Union's supplies of soft woods, the Forestry Department has announced a large-scale afforestation campaign planned to supply 90 per cent of the country's requirements within the next 50 years. The immediate aim is to establish 35,000 acres yearly but because of abnormal conditions resulting from the war this objective will not be attained until 1949. The program will require acquisition, over a 25-year period, of another 500,000 acres of land suitable for afforestation at an estimated cost of £1,500,000 ($6,000,000).

The biggest single housing scheme ever sponsored by the Union Government is on the point of being launched, Government sources here announced. At a cost of about £2,000,000 ($8,000,000), 6,800 native dwellings, housing as many families—the equivalent of 36,000 people—will be constructed at Orlando, near Johannesburg, within the next 12 months.

Work on the Sand-Vet River irrigation scheme in the Orange Free State, approved at the last session of Parliament, was begun recently.

The dams will be so designed that eventually it will be possible to take water from the Caledon River to the Pretoria area. Dam-building teams have set up operations at the two dams and canals will lead water from the dams to irrigate thousands of acres across the Free State [illegible]

More than 800 motor vehicles were unloaded recently at Port Elizabeth, trade officials reported. Most of the vehicles came from the United States and in the American quota were included cars, trucks and farm tractors, while Britain supplied cars as did Canada and the Continent.

Mayor Examines Old Hotel Building

—Colonist Photo.

EARLY tomorrow morning, unused parts of one of Victoria's oldest buildings will fall victim to the wrecker's bar and hammer when renovation work starts in the dark and musty "catacombs" of the Windsor Hotel, 606 Courtney Street. Unused for almost two decades, the ancient rooms once echoed to the voices and laughter of hundreds of gold-hungry men who stopped off here for supplies on their way to the newly-opened gold fields of the Klondike. The first brick building in Victoria, the Windsor Hotel and other properties at the corner of Courtney and Government Streets have been acquired recently by a group of local businessmen headed by Howard S. Clark. Shown in the above photograph are Mayor Percy E. George, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Clark (centre) and two visitors examining one of the old rooms.

Logging Camps To Be Visited By Instructor

Seeking to broaden first aid and safety knowledge throughout lumber camps of British Columbia, the St. John Ambulance Association announced yesterday the appointment of a traveling instructor and field representative to supervise instructors throughout all parts of the province.

Douglas Abrahamson, Vancouver, has been appointed and will commence his new duties on Tuesday at Prince George, where he will instruct employees of the 47 member firms of the Northern Interior Lumbermen's Association. He will be accompanied by G. G. Edwardson, Victoria, provincial secretary.

On completion of these classes Mr. Abrahamson will organize classes in Southern British Columbia for 46 member firms of the Southern Interior Lumbermen's Association.

The program is part of a joint effort on behalf of the Workmen's Compensation Board, the Canadian Manufacturer's Association and the St. John Ambulance Association to reduce the severity and frequency of logging accidents.

Two Sentences Are Suspended

A woman who was charged by her husband with assault when she threw a dishpan at him, missed, and hit their three-year-old child in the mouth, was given a six months' suspended sentence by Magistrate Henry C. Hall in Saanich police court yesterday.

She was ordered to post a $100 bond to be of good behavior for the period.

Similar punishment was handed out to a man who was charged with assaulting his wife. Evidence indicated he had been drinking for four days. In addition to the suspended sentence and bond, accused was required by the magistrate to refrain from drinking any intoxicating liquor for six months.

Work Point Guns Familiar Before War Again Will Tell Time for Victorians

FAMILIAR booming of the daily time guns at Work Point Barracks, so popular with Victorians before firing of the guns was stopped shortly after the outbreak of war, again will be heard throughout this area beginning tomorrow, according to announcement from Lieut.-Col. A. C. Perron, officer commanding Coast Artillery, West Coast, R.C.A.

Col. Perron said the guns will be fired daily at noon and 9 p.m., as they were before the war, on time signals provided by the Meteorological Observatory on Gonzales Hill.

Originated around 1900, when masters of British ships stationed here synchronized their chronometers with the firing of a gun from the flagship H.M.S. Grafton, the custom was taken over by the army garrison in 1906, and continued until 1940 when it was suspended by wartime regulations.

States Vibration Can Be Halted Only by Improving City Roads

"Improvement of the road bed and a road surface free of depressions such as are now evident," is the only permanent solution to the problem of vibration damage to houses along certain parts of B.C. Electric Railway Co., Ltd., bus routes, W. C. Mainwaring, vice-president of the company, advised the City Council in a letter received yesterday.

Mr. Mainwaring was replying to a letter from the city enclosing a petition signed by 15 residents of Haultain Street, between Roseberry Avenue and Shelbourne Street, complaining that vibration from the heavy B.C. Electric buses was causing damage to their property.

Mr. Mainwaring said that in an effort to meet the complaint, orders have been issued to bus drivers to reduce speeds to not more than 15 miles per hour when traveling through the affected portions on the route.

Representatives of the mechanical and transportation departments of the company have interviewed a number of complainants personally, the letter stated, and have conducted a series of vibration tests on their premises.

From these tests it was found that a certain amount of vibration was noticeable in houses fronting on Haultain Street, between Roseberry Avenue and Shelbourne Street, when any heavy bus, truck or other commercial vehicle passed at speeds in excess of 15 miles per hour, the letter said.

A majority of the residents could not differentiate between the vibration caused by buses and commercial trucks and vehicles, the company's letter continued. Sections of the street are in need of repair and the vibration is greater when vehicles pass over these sections. No vibration was noticeable when any vehicle was operated at a speed of less than 15 miles per hour.

"In our opinion, the new type bus does not produce any more vibration than any other vehicle of equivalent size and weight, including coal and wood trucks and other heavy commercial vehicles which pass over these streets many times throughout the day," Mr. Mainwaring stated.

Rev. W. Hills will speak to the Rotary Club. His topic will be "The New Importance of Canada."

Lions Club members will hold a business meeting.

Norman Buckle Dies in England

After a brief illness at his home in Farnham, England, Norman Frederick Buckle, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Buckle, 23 Paddon Avenue, passed away December 22, it was learned yesterday.

Born at Hampstead, London, England, the late Mr. Buckle came to Victoria in 1914, received his education at Monterey and Victoria High Schools, and later graduated as a druggist.

Keenly interested in theatricals, he was well known in this city as an amateur actor. In 1936 he returned to England, where he engaged in professional theatrical work. During the past six years he produced a number of Shakespearian and other plays with his own stock company at the Castle Theatre, Farnham.

Among survivors are his brother, H. Percy Buckle; and a sister, Mrs. Harold G. Brockhurst, now residing in Victoria.

Nearly 200 Children to Attend Ceremonies

New Canadian citizens of Victoria will join Government leaders at Bay Street Armoury on Friday at 8 p.m. to celebrate the achievement of citizenship status for the Dominion.

This epoch will be marked by the Province from today until January 11. Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education and chairman of the Cabinet committee sponsoring commemoration of the inauguration of Canadian Citizenship Week, yesterday announced approval of a program which will include addresses by Premier John Hart, Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan, Minister of Public Works E. C. Carson, Mayor Percy George and Dr. Weir himself.

There will be approximately 300 invited guests and reserved seats for nearly 200 school children. Arrangements are being made for student council groups to attend in a body. School principals will be invited from all schools in the Greater Victoria area, for there is a deliberate emphasis on youth and the future of the new generation growing up to the responsibilities of full citizenship.

Judge H. H. Shandley will officiate at the court proceedings of granting of citizenship and the swearing of the oath of allegiance. The stage will be cleared for this ceremony, and Dr. Weir, on behalf of British Columbia schools, and Mayor George, on behalf of Victoria citizens, will receive their certificates.

There will be a choral program and folk dances during the evening.

Coachman for Marquis At Ottawa 70 Years Ago

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP).—Nearly 70 years ago Harry Bristow came to Canada as coachman for the Marquis of Lorne, Governor-General of Canada before the turn of the century. Today at 81 this lively little white-haired man still takes his two-mile walk every afternoon, and has only just begun complaining of a "little near-sightedness."

Victoria driving a donkey-cart, he has lived in palaces and in beautiful mansions in the country traveling to London "for the season." In 1891 he was coachman at the funeral of Canada's first Prime Minister, Sir John A. Macdonald.

Of the Marquis of Lorne, he says: "He was an awfully nice gentleman who liked a bit of fun . . . I remember once he had been given a pair of moose by the Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba. One day he brought some visitors to show them the moose . . . he turned to me and asked 'Bristow, do you think you could break these moose to harness?'"

Mr. Bristow described how he worked on the moose for weeks, but finally broke them. "We drove them everywhere . . . in those days it was quite usual to see the two moose drawing a carriage."

Once following a dinner-party the marquis came down to the stables and asked Mr. Bristow whether he "thought I could get one of the moose into the drawing-room."

"So I brought the moose in the front door, up the stairs and into the drawing-room," recalled the former coachman. "Those guests certainly were surprised."

When the Marquis of Lorne and in 1883 Mr. Bristow and his wife, who died six years ago—the year before their diamond wedding anniversary—accompanied them to Kensington Palace.

However the couple eventually returned to Ottawa, where Mr. Bristow operated a cab stand until the coming of the automobile forced him out of business.

Mr. Bristow never has owned an automobile, nor does he like them. "I've driven horses all my life and never had an accident," he said. "But nowadays you can't pick up a paper without reading about an automobile accident."

Medical Men Save Infant

CALGARY, Jan. 4 (CP).—Terry Martin is a healthy blue-eyed, fair-haired boy with rosy cheeks who would probably take top prize in any baby contest, but 15 months ago when he was born in a Calgary hospital he had little chance of living.

He was an RH baby—so-called because his blood was RH positive and his mother's RH negative, causing what is known in medical circles as erythroblastosis foetalis, and to the general public as jaundice of the newborn. Anti-bodies formed in Terry's blood which were destroying his red blood cells.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis C. Martin, Calgary, he is now a perfectly normal boy, and the favorite of the neighborhood. The doctor who treated him terms Terry a "miracle baby."

It is only in recent years that the RH factor (named because it was first found in Rhesus monkeys) was discovered. If the father's blood is RH positive and the mother's RH negative, the child may inherit the positive characteristic from his father: then if the RH positive and the RH negative cells are incompatible, the result is the formation of anti-bodies in the unborn baby's blood stream which cause anemia and jaundice.

Generally the baby must be "transfused" by draining the blood from his body and at the same time pumping in new RH negative blood. But in Terry's case something different was done.

Circumstances prevented transfusion, so five per cent glucose was given intravenously to offset dehydration, and the baby was put on a formula fortified with extra iron. This built up his red blood cells until within a few months his blood picture was normal.

Even Mrs. Martin admits that Terry was a strange-looking baby at birth for his body was a deep yellow and his hair almost colorless. Two older children, Verona, who is 13, and Fred, 14, were perfectly normal at birth.

Political Group Formed in U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP). — A new political organization named America for Democratic Action was set up here tonight by a group of 150 which said membership is barred to Communists and their fellow travelers.

As the first of six "basic principles" the group endorsed expansion of the "New Deal program."

An organizing committee of 25 was appointed, including former O.P.A. Administrator Leon Henderson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., former Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt, Radio Commentator Elmer Davis, and Walter Reuther, president of the C.I.O. United Automobile Workers.

The meeting and the new-born political front were sponsored by the Union for Democratic Action.

University Plans Building Program

SHEFFIELD, England, Jan. 4 (CP).—Sheffield University soon will open a £3,000,000 ($12,000,000) campaign to give the city a "real university quarter" within 10 years, concentrating new and old buildings in the Broomhill section.

The whole job will cost £6,000,000 but the Government will pay one-half. At present Sheffield University has 1,200 full-time students in grossly overcrowded accommodation. Particular attention will be given in the reconstruction to residential halls.

Firemen Fight To Save Ship

BIRKENHEAD, Cheshire, England, Jan. 4 (Reuters).—Firemen from Birkenhead and neighboring districts today were fighting to save the nearly completed 15,000-ton liner Corinthia following a fire which broke out in the hold of the ship on the Merseyside early today.

The Corinthia, nearing completion in shipyards here, had developed a 15 to 20-degree list to starboard and part of her propeller was out of the water.

Fire fighters, perched precariously on cranes, confined the blaze to No. 5 Hold, from which flames and smoke still billowed five hours after the report of the outbreak at 5 a.m. local time. Firemen, however, had to stop pumping water into the hold as the danger of the vessel capsizing increased and water was played on the adjoining docks and superstructure in an effort to localize the blaze.

Cause of the outbreak was not definitely known but it was reported that insulating work was being carried out and that the fire started among cork lying in the hold.

The Corinthia, largest vessel ever built on the Mersey, is intended for cargo and passenger service between Britain and the Dominions.

Cannery Ship Leaves Port

ASTORIA, Ore., Jan. 4 (AP).—The floating cannery ship Ss. Pacific Explorer sailed from here tonight for the waters off Central and South America in the greatest deep-sea fishing expedition in the country's history.

The big converted freighter, factory ship of the Pacific Exploration Co., Ltd., will process and store the catch of 12 fishing vessels.

Later the cannery and its fleet of smaller trawlers will head for waters of the Bering Sea in the North Pacific.

The expedition is being financed by a Reconstruction Finance Corporation investment of about $3,750,000. The plan is to extend the American fishing industry beyond the immediate off-shore fishing grounds.

Grocery Clerks Still on Strike

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4 (AP).—A negotiation meeting between Grocery Clerks' Union representatives and chain store employers failed to bring agreement tonight on wages that might end a strike which has closed about 1,500 Los Angeles food stores.

The meeting recessed until tomorrow, with both sides holding little likelihood that agreement would be reached in time for stores to reopen Monday morning. Employer spokesmen pointed out that any union proposal must be submitted to the entire employer membership, even if negotiators agree.

Retail Clerks' spokesmen said the strike was causing no food shortages, and but little inconvenience to housewives. It is directed only at the big chains and local chains. Neighborhood stores are remaining open.

More U.S. Irish Than in Ireland

DUBLIN, Jan. 4 (CP).—There are far more people of Irish blood in the United States than in Ireland, D. W. Brogan, professor of political science at Cambridge, told the Royal Dublin Society.

Between 1820 and 1920, nearly 5,500,000 Irish people settled in the United States, becoming the "basic proletariat" of the country. The only parallel in history was the migration from Portugal to Brazil.

Renovation Program Proceeds While "Y" Awaits New Building

Although plans for a Y.M.C.A. building campaign are well underway, it will be four or five years before a new building will be completed, Arnold Ramer, general secretary of the local "Y," said yesterday.

In the meantime, according to Mr. Ramer, an extensive renovation and modernization program is being undertaken in an effort to improve the present facilities and to increase the efficiency of operation and program services.

Included in the renovation program is the painting and redecorating of 26 residence rooms. This project is being undertaken by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Welcome to bathers at the "Y" will be the installation of a thermostatic water temperature controller, which will facilitate the regulation of showers and avoid extreme hot and cold water hazards.

The front office and desk is being modernized to facilitate better service, stairs are being resurfaced and rebuilt, and both boys' and men's locker rooms are being repaired and redecorated. Protectors are being installed over the lights in the swimming pool to permit water polo to be played. The cafeteria also is being redecorated and modern equipment installed.

Bombed Exeter Cathedral Undergoing Restoration

EXETER, England, Jan. 4 (CP).—Restoration of Exeter's civic pride—a sprawling grey stone cathedral built in the 12th century and damaged by a German bomb in 1942—is proceeding rapidly under guidance of experts, financed by donations from local church folk and people outside the church.

To those who have spent their valleys of Devonshire's capital city, bombing of the cathedral was a major crime. Said a young Exeter soldier writing home from a training camp: "We'll get even with them for that!"

Now the city aims to raise £75,000 ($300,000) from donations and benefit concerts and each week Exeter's daily newspaper publishes a full column of new subscribers.

Striking St. James' Chapel on the south side of the cathedral, the bomb not only destroyed two flying buttresses and the chapel, but blasted into fragments a great deal of medieval oak carving.

As the stability of the building was threatened, the dean and chapter were granted a special licence for immediate repair work. Even so, it was some time before one of the buttresses could be reconnected to the main wall. The other will be back in position soon.

Some ingenuity is being used in restoring woodwork which, to an untrained eye, seems beyond repair. From tons of shattered stone and choir, Herbert Read, benevolent grey-haired sculptor, is picking out wooden fragments, however minute, discarding broken chairlegs and other valueless modern debris and classifying what is ancient and of artistic value.

So far about 12,000 pieces have been collected and stored in wooden cases in readiness for the day when they can be restored. Mr. Read's assistants are three trained carvers, who, like himself, are specialists not concerned with ordinary house building.

Restoration of the 17th century organ case now is completed. So is that of the choir stalls, comparatively modern work designed by Gilbert Scott in the 19th century. The organ itself and some early 14th century misericord seats had, like the bishop's throne, been removed before the bombing.

Most difficult task is reconstructing some 15th century oak screens. Four were destroyed and of one of them—in the entrance to St. James' Chapel—not a single splinter has been found.

Thieves Ransack Two Dwellings

Burglars ransacked two dwellings in Victoria last night, obtaining considerable loot, city police reported.

At 10:15 p.m. Mrs. C. D. Collard, 3139 Balfour Avenue, reported to police that her home had been broken into and ransacked. Detective F. Woodburn and Inspector Detective J. Rogers investigated and found that entrance had been gained by the basement door. Listed as missing were six silver teaspoons, six silver coffee spoons, an ammunition belt and three hunting knives.

At 10:40 p.m. Orval Davis, 1045 Rockland Avenue reported to city police that his apartment had been entered and ransacked. Detective F. Woodburn and Inspector Detective J. Rogers found that entrance had been gained through a bedroom window. Two suits of men's clothing valued at $125 were missing.

Actress Released From Prague Jail

PRAGUE, Jan. 4 (AP).—Lida Baarova, brunette film actress whose name once was linked with that of Nazi Propoganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, was released from Pankrac jail today because of lack of evidence to support charges of treason and espionage.

Miss Baarova, who was regarded in the last decade as one of the most beautiful women in Europe, was arrested by American officials in Munich in September, 1945, and later was indicted by a Prague court.
